

1. SRI LANKA MUSLIMS

We Muslims are proud of the fact that we are citizens of Sri Lanka, our mother land, where our racial ancestors, the Arabs originated the Sri Lanka Muslim race, more than Two Thousand Five Hundred (2,500) years ago. As people professing the religion of Islam we have been here for over 1,400 years.

Although Sri Lanka Muslims speak the Tamil Language, we are not ethnically Tamils. In Sri Lanka the Sinhalese call us “Yonaka” and the Tamils call us “Sonakar”. “Yon” and “Sonakam” means Arabia in Pali and Tamil languages respectively. We are the descendants of the people from Arabia – Arabs.

Muslims have always been loyal to the country and were in the forefront of the struggle – resisting the foreign invaders, winning back the lost freedom and consolidating the freedom won.

Muslims have fought together with the Sinhalese when Portuguese invaded Sri Lanka. Every resistant moment of Sinhalese had Muslims in their ranks. So much so that we became the target of persecution under all the colonial powers.

When the Muslims were expelled by the Portuguese from the Western coastal areas, the Sinhalese King Senarath settled the Muslims in strategically important areas in the Eastern Province to resist the invaders. These Muslims have since merged with those of the original Arab Settlers in the Eastern Province whose ancient colony is described as “ARABITHTHA CIVITAS” in the 15th century Vatican Manuscript of Ptolemy’s Map.

The Dutch denied the Muslims even the freedom to practice our religion. For a period of roughly three centuries, between the arrival of the Portugese in 1505 and the departure of the Dutch in 1795, the Muslims in the maritime provinces underwent untold hardships at the hands of the invaders. Muslims have made great sacrifice for our homelands in Sri Lanka.

In the extended franchise election held in May – June 1931 for the first State Council, only the Eastern province Muslims were able to elect a Muslim to represent the entire Muslim community in Sri Lanka. It is in the Eastern province that the Muslim political right is preserved and protected

In the first Parliamentary Election in 1947, on the eve of Independence, Muslim representatives were elected for 4 of the 7 electorates in the Eastern province while the Tamils got only 3 seats. In the Provincial Council election held on May 10, 2008 the Muslim elected 17, Tamils 11, and the Sinhalese 6 which is a clear proof that the Muslims are the unquestioned number one majority in the Eastern Province.

Sri Lanka Muslim Community of today is composed of various cultural groups. The vast majority of them are the descendants of the Arabs. The Malays who came during the Dutch period after 1640 from Indonesia and Malaya form the second largest group. Later, during the British period, after 1796, more Muslim Traders came from the Indian sub-continent, mostly from Malabar and Coromendal coasts. More recently came the Memons, Bohras and others from India, who have made their homes here and became a part of Sri Lanka Muslim Community.

In the last fifty or sixty years, during which Sri Lanka mounted a Constitutional struggle, you will not come across one solitary Muslim voice against the aspirations of the majority Sinhalese people. Muslim representatives did not go before Royal Commissions, nor have they gone before the International Community with accusation and sought to blacken the image of the Sinhalese people. In fact, if there is one community that could legitimately complain of being discriminated in the field of Education, Land Alienation, Colonization, Security etc. which come under the purview of the State, it could be the Muslims of Sri Lanka.

It is the Eastern and Northern Muslims who have been at the receiving end of atrocities committed by the Tamil Terrorist for not extending support for the division of Sri Lanka for the creation of the separate Tamil Eelam state in the North East.

Muslims have not demanded separation nor are we terrorists. We have always stood with the people in the fight to protect the independence and sovereignty of the country. We did not change our religion to receive honours or land. We are proud of our loyalty. This loyalty we carried to the last when Dr. T.B. Jayah, in Parliament, on 9th November, 1945 speaking on the Sri Lanka Dominion Status Bill, said "When the question of Independence arises, we the Muslims will put aside all our differences and stand together with the Sinhalese” It was in appreciation of this sentiment, the late Mr. S.W.R.D. Bandaranaike said “the Sinhalese will stand for ever indebted to the Muslims for the unselfish stand they took on the question of Independence.”

However, Ven. Ellawala Thero, Leader of JHU, a constituent party in the Government of President Mahinda Rajapaksa, says that Sri Lanka is for the Sinhala Buddhist and wants the Muslims to go back to Saudi Arabia.

Due to ethnic conflict the other communities in Sri Lanka – the Sinhalese and Tamils have also suffered. But the case of the Muslims is quite different. The Government and its armed forces are providing all possible protection and relief for the Sinhalese. The Tamil Militants, the Indian government and the international Tamil Community are fully backing the Sri Lanka Tamils. But the unarmed Sri Lanka Muslims are helpless and caught napping in the unfortunate ethnic conflict.

The pattern of attacks that has been unleashed on the Muslims clearly demonstrates that there is a deliberate plan by the Sinhala Buddhist supporters of Bodu Bala Sena and Jathika Hela Urumaya to weaken the economic, political and social strength of the Muslims and to chase the Muslims away.

The Indo-Sri Lanka Accord, the 13th Amendment to the Constitution and the provisions of the Provincial Council Act have failed to meet the legitimate and reasonable demands of the Muslims. They have failed to protect our lives and properties. They have failed to recognize the different ethnic and political aspirations of the Muslims. This total disregard shown to Muslim sentiments brings to surface one important political truth – that is the Government has little or no concern about the safety and security of the Muslim people.

Although patronizing remarks and promises are being made by the Sinhalese and Tamil political leaders, in the actual exercise of power, every effort appears to have been made to cripple and destroy the rights and privileges of the Muslims. The Muslims should consider more seriously the present trend and take immediate steps to safeguard their legitimate rights in an appropriate manner. If proper safeguards are not secured now, it would amount to be the biggest betrayal of not only the present generation but also those yet to be born in Sri Lanka as Muslims in the future.

2. MUSLIMS DEMAND IMMEDIATE ACTION AGAINST ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN SRI LANKA

There are many anti-Muslim activities in Sri Lanka today by the Sinhala Buddhist supporters Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) and Jathika Hela Urumaya. Mosques attacked and Jumma prayers stopped, Muslim women dressed in Abaya and Nikab and men wearing caps and beard are insulted in public, Pork (haram food) introduced in restaurants, Halal Logo removed from food items in the shops, some Sinhala Buddhist supporters of Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) and the Jathika Hela Urumaya (JHU) openly declared as unofficial police and conducting raids in Muslim institutions and business places. Anti-Muslim hate speeches in public meetings and demonstrations are conducted by Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) in the presence of government security forces. These anti-Muslim activities have been going on for more than 18 months – more than 300 recorded incidents and 10 resolutions passed by BBS at Maharagama meeting on 17 February 2013. The government did nothing about this. All these are against Sri Lanka Constitution and the LLRC recommendations for reconciliations among different communities in Sri Lanka.

Referring to the ethnic and religious tension between the Muslims and the Sinhala Buddhist - Bodu Bala Sena (BBS), National Languages and Social Integration Minister Vasudeva Nanayakkara had said that it could have been prevented if the government had intervened earlier.

But what is happening today? The Jathika Hela Urumaya (JHU) a constituent party in the UPFA government and the BBS are openly interfering with the religious and constitutional rights of the Muslims. Today most of the Muslim members of Parliament are either Ministers or Deputy Ministers. They have sidelined the Muslims' issues to suit the political agenda of the government.

Hartals were observed in predominant Muslim areas in the Eastern Province to protest against the anti-Muslim stance taken by JHU and BBS. All shops and government offices in Kuchchaveli, Kinniya, Muthur, Batticaloa, Kattankudi, Maruthamunai, Kalmunai, Ninthavur, Addalachchenai, Akkaraipattu and Pottuvil remained closed and transport in these areas came to a standstill.

It is from the Eastern Province that the Muslim Political Representations are elected for the Muslims by the Muslims. 7 Muslims have been elected to the parliament and 18 Muslim Majority Local bodies – 2 Municipal Councils, 3 Urban Councils and 13 Pradeshiya Sabha out of 37 in the Eastern Province today. During the last election to the Eastern Provincial Council, 15 Muslims were elected out of the 35 members. Sri Lanka Muslim Congress (SLMC) contested this election independently promising to protect Muslim rights and won 7 seats. After the election SLMC joined the ruling coalition – UPFA 12, SLMC 7, NFF 1 and the bonus 2 – total 22 out of the 37 members. The idea of joining the ruling government to resolve Muslims' grievances have been proved a mistake.

If the UPFA government continues to ignore to provide security for Muslims and delay taking legal action against those groups promoting anti-Muslim activities, the SLMC should withdraw its support to the UPFA coalition in Parliament and the Eastern Provincial Council. The Muslim Majority Local Bodies should stage strong protest and negotiate with Tamils to protect the Constitutional Rights of the minority communities in Sri Lanka.

Muslims would never give up their constitutional rights and Islamic way of life and dressing, consuming Halal food, constructing mosques for prayers and madrasas (schools) for learning the Holy Quran and Hadees (teaching of the Holy Propets) and would strongly oppose the abolition of Jammiyathul Ulemas (Association of Muslim theologians) and the National Shura Council.

3. ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES

DHARGA TOWN, ALUTHGAMA AND BERUWALA EPISODES

The Sinhala Buddhist supporters of Bodu Bala Sena killed 3 Muslims, injured 88 people, 3 mosques and 174 houses damaged, 79 shops burnt, 37 three wheelers and 15 other vehicles damaged on 15 June 2014 in Welipitiya an ethnically mixed village off Dharga Town, Aluthgama and Beruwela in Sri Lanka.

The bullet that killed one of the victims had pierced his heart and exited through the spine. A shot in the head had killed another. The third allegedly succumbed to wounds inflicted by a bullet that pierced his stomach.

Apart from the destruction of life, limb and properties of Muslims, the violence also had resulted in the destruction of an animal farm in Welipitiya, Aluthgama, where 242 fowls and goats have been reportedly killed together with its Farm keeper.

According to Justice Minister and Sri Lanka Muslim Congress Leader Rauff Hakeem, the medical reports of the three gunshot victims have been fabricated.

Hakeem and his ministerial colleague Rishard Bathiudeen have publicly called for the proscription of the hardline Sinhala Buddhist Terrorist - Bodu Sena and legal action against the group's Chief, Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara Thero, the man who threatened to 'end' Dharga Twon, Aluthgama, in one night a few hours before the riots broke out.

After the two Ministers openly criticized the Government and demanded legal action against the BBS at the last week's heated Cabinet meeting, the angry President Mahinda Rajapaksa retorted that arresting the Bodu Bala Sena Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara Thero would 'turn him into a hero' and action against the BBS and its rampaging Sinhala Buddhist supporters would worsen religious tensions.

Fresh clashes against the Muslim have been reported in several areas, since Sunday, 15 June 2014. Last weekend, an abaya shop in Dehiwala was pelted with stones and on Tuesday night, a shop in Beruwala was torched by an unknown group.

On Saturday (21 June 2014) morning, news that the Panadura Nolimit showroom had been completely gutted by in a pre-dawn fire shattered an uneasy calm that was settling over southern and western Sri Lanka. The Panadura showroom is the largest in the Nolimit chain. Estimated value of damage Rs.300 Million.

The Stage was set when wave after wave of unchecked extremist hate speech and attacks on Muslim places of worship and trade unfolded across the country. The foundation was laid in the impunity Buddhist hardliners enjoyed when they launched campaigns against the Dambulla mosque, the Kuragal Sufi Shrine, the Halal food certification and the Fashion Bug textile factory in Pepiliyana last year.

For 18 months from January 2013 to June 2014 , while liberals and Muslims politicians and civil society groups pleaded, President Rajapaksa and his Government dismissed the Bodu Bala Sena, Sinhala Ravaya and Ravana Balaya antics as 'sulu, sulu siddheen' (minor incidents) and buttressed it with platitudes about Sri Lankan unity.

When the attacks began to be flagged internationally, at the UN Human Rights Council in Geneva and across the Western world, the Government hit back hard, calling the reaction 'disproportionate' and without basis, since the religious tensions were no more than 'isolated incidents' that were being dealt with through a legal process, wherever evidence was available.

Internationalisation of violence against Muslims

The violence in Aluthgama and the adjoining town of Beruwala against the Muslims dominated the discussion between Fernandez-Taranco and Minister Hakeem held at the Minister's residence last Friday (20 June 2014), in the presence of liaison officers from the Ministry of External Affairs, President Rajapaksa's Justice Minister gave damning testimony about the victimization of the Muslim community by Buddhist hardline group over the past 18 months, culminating in last Sunday's riots in Aluthgama.

Minister Hakeem told the UN Assistant Secretary General that he expected justice for Sri Lankan minorities and equal protection of the law, in the light of recent events. The Minister made similar interventions with US Ambassador Michele Sison, during a meeting last week.

Both meetings have incensed the regime. Minister Hakeem is being warned to watch his public remarks on the anti-Muslim violence, after he made several statements to the international press that the Government perceived as being damaging, especially originating from a Cabinet Minister. The SLMC Leader is already in hot water for taking the anti-Muslim attacks to UN High Commissioner for Human Rights Navi Pillay during her visit to Sri Lanka last year.

Govt. statements

At the UNHRC in Geneva, which is currently in session, the Sri Lankan delegation was forced to defend itself against remarks made by Germany, Norway and Canada, about the anti-Muslim violence in Aluthgama. The statement delivered on Friday before the Council was the first official Sri Lankan Government statement on the riots. Its contents would bear startling testimony to the Rajapaksa administration's handling of the issue, and its ideological positions on the violence and its instigators.

White-washing and downplaying the role of the hardline movements and dismissing their part as being unrelated in 'isolated' attacks on minority communities has brought a new tragedy and a new persecution to the Government's door. Yet it persists, in undermining the pain and suffering of the Muslim community, over the last 18 months, particularly last week, when some of them lost lives, livelihoods and the roof over their heads in instigated, senseless violence.

Gnanasara Thero's hate speech against Muslims did not begin in Aluthgama last Sunday. It has been growing increasingly for the last 18 months. The Government that arrested journalist J.S. Tissanayagam, politician Azath Sally and human rights activists Ruki Fernando under Prevention of Terrorism Act dealing with an incitement of communal tension, has been criminally derelict in the case of Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara.

The Government persists with the theory that the Bodu Bala Sena cannot be directly linked to the Aluthgama riots. Bodu Bala Sena's open threats against the Muslims in the areas of historical habitation of Muslims and its call for the Sinhalese to "awake," these are only auxiliary to the violence. But after months and months of similar rhetoric, why does the Government fail to read the writing that has been on the wall since Gnanasara Thero first began his ranting?

We have still not been able to get over the scars of the communal riots of July 1983 and its aftermath that continued for 30 long years with the scourge of a terrorist war, which is still haunting the country. The world's attention is now focused on Sri Lanka for large scale violations of human rights at the last stages of the war, with the objective of punishing the country. On top of all these, we now have this shameful act of violence against the Muslim minority, rekindling the memory of past communal riots against the Tamils, suggesting to the world community that Sri Lanka a nation at each other's throat.

The fact that these events were instigated by the BBS over an insignificant matter is well established. To begin with, the impunity with which the BBS was allowed to carry on their hate speeches and warmongering over the halal issue, the attack on mosques and the inability of the law enforcement agencies to set in motion the due legal process, appear to have had a catalytic effect in bringing about the present situation which now seems out of control.

It is still fresh in the memory of people that the Fashion Bug departmental store in Pepiliyana was attacked by mobs led by Buddhist monks, as seen on video clippings, but the perpetrators had not been brought to justice. In Aluthgama, the BBS is reported to have given leadership to armed thugs who set ablaze Muslim owned shops and houses and attacked anyone who stood in their way. It is a pity that these events took place whilst the Police and the army watched by idly, as if to suggest that they had been asked not to stop the marauders. This is quite evident by the fact that the Police could not prevent the attack on a Muslim owned business premises right opposite the Police station. While Aluthgama was limping back, there was another obvious arson attack in Panadura on the newly constructed Muslim owned showpiece clothing store Nolimit, within a stone's throw away from the Police station, which had been gutted to ashes in the night. The fire brigade vehicle arrived at the site within half an hour on a complaint by the watcher, did not bring water. These events give credence to the general perception among public that the Police had to wait for orders from their political masters before they could act on their own.

The BBS has brought discredit to Sri Lanka in general and to Buddhism in particular, the majority religion of the country. It is beyond any sane person's imagination as to how a Buddhist priest, a disciple of Lord Buddha, could spew out venom and espouse violence against anyone, using foul and deplorable language unbecoming of a person in robes. If the leader of BBS is a true follower of the Enlightened One, he would not have behaved in this manner. Many renowned Buddhist priests have condemned his behaviour and even distanced themselves from BBS by saying that they do not subscribe to their views or actions. It seems that someone from among laity will have to teach the BBS all about Buddhism and of Metta, Muditha, Karuna and Upeksha, the tenets preached by the Buddha.

These unfortunate events epitomise the present state of the degeneration of society with degradation of values which were held sacrosanct in the past. Humanity has fallen into the bottomless pit due to prevalent lawlessness in the country. Murderers, rapists, thieves, bootleggers, rogues, political thugs and drug barons now enjoy free rides with the blessings of their political masters and they have in fact become the creame of Sri Lankan society today. For sure, none of them will be taken to task for whatever crime they commit, as was seen over several incidents in the past. Even those against whom cases are pending in courts will eventually be set free due to suppression of evidence or on a pardon if found guilty.

The BBS and JHU will be soon absolved of responsibility for the mayhem they created. That's the unfortunate reality and the state of Sri Lanka today.

5. SUSPICION OVER POSTMORTEM REPORTS

Certain interested parties have meddled with the postmortem reports

The Bar Association of Sri Lanka (BASL) is to submit an application to court and seek an order to exhume the bodies of the Muslims who were killed during the recent riots in Aluthgama and Beruwala and investigate the circumstances that led to their deaths after suspicions were raised over the postmortem reports.

Following a meeting held on Saturday 28 June 2014, the BASL had decided to ask the court to direct a qualified Judicial Medical Officer (JMO) or head of the Forensic Department at the University of Colombo to conduct a postmortem seeking accurate and comprehensive reports into the deaths.

Justice Minister Rauff Hakeem had also indicated that there were serious doubts over the postmortem reports already submitted on the victims. "Certain interested parties have meddled with the postmortem reports of the two deceased persons and also with the medical reports of the 17 year old boy whose leg had to be amputated as a result of the riots," BASL President Mr. Jayasuriya said. He said that if Minister Hakeem had also raised concerns on the postmortem reports, then the Sri Lanka Medical Council (SLMC) and the Government Medical Officer's Association (GMOA) should push for a separate investigation as to if the medical professionals had failed to discharge their duties properly or if there was any outside interference.

Meanwhile, the BASL has resolved to urge the Attorney General to take immediate steps to direct the police investigating the violence in the South to take action against those who had instigated tensions between Muslims and Sinhalese.

The BASL also unanimously resolved to issue a statement condemning the steps that were taken by the hooligans and the criminal elements during the violence which led to the destruction of houses, mosques, business places and factories belonging to Muslims. "We note with regret that having ended the 30 year war with the LTTE, there are certain elements with religious connections who harass yet another minority community. These groups have to be charged under the Prevention of Terrorism Act (PTA). Suitable action must be taken by the police and the law enforcement authorities to maintain peace in the affected areas. It is said that on many instances attacks have been carried out in the presence of the law enforcement authorities," claimed by the President of BASL Mr. Jayasuriya.

6. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL FAILED TO TAKE ACTION AGAINST THE BBS

President of the Bar Association of Sri Lanka (BASL) and Attorney at Law Mr. Upul Jayasuriya said that although the BASL on two occasions requested the AG to instruct the police to take action against the Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) General Secretary Ven. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara Thero, the AG did not act swiftly on the requests.

The President of BASL also accused the Attorney General of not taking any action against the Thero for his violent behaviour, "Had the AG acted swiftly on our requests, the country wouldn't have witnessed a blood - bath in Aluthgama," he stressed.

Under Section 21 of the Prevention of Terrorism Act (PTA), the government can ban meetings that propagate hatred. Those who violate the law are subjected to 20 years of rigorous imprisonment. However such a meeting was being held on Sunday June 15 which led to the unfortunate incidents. This was a well-attended meeting and the BBS made a public speech with several inflammatory statements, to cause disharmony between Sinhalese and Muslims. All the statements he has made are in order form and everyone has heard and seen them. This is not the first time Gnanasara Thero made such statements and he was once indicted in High Court for a similar statement.

First and foremost, why did the police allow him to hold such a meeting in spite of a written complain made to the police by Western Provincial Council member Mr. Asad Shally which complain was acknowledge in writing by the police and what action have they taken against him? It is also a well-known secret as to how a powerful government minister in the area summoned a meeting soon after the carnage to which this Thero was also invited.

Under the PTA the police can impose bans. Unfortunately, the PTA has been used against political enemies, against whom it should not have been used.

The police are still refusing to take direct action against the BBS Chief despite his involvement in violence in recent times.

The police are not allowed to take action by the political authority. The police do not have a backbone to refuse illegal directives which are against the law. The police must understand that they have to protect the law. On two occasions the BASL brought to the notice of the Attorney General about this Thero's illegal behaviour. The President of BASL sent the first letter on 20 May 2014 complaining that the BBS has taken law into their hands and has violated the law of the country.

This Buddhist monk once stormed the ministry of Hon. Rishard Badurdeen and the Ministry Secretary made a complaint to the police about that incident, no action was taken against this monk, The BASL urged the AG to give proper directives to the police to take action against this law breaker. If the AG took immediate action, this carnage would not have happened. All these arsons and robberies have taken place in the presence of the STF. Obviously, no police officer, unless specifically instructed, will take action. One has to see who gave the orders to these police officers not to act then, and who is giving orders them now, not to take action against the culprits.

When police officers failed to take action when offences were being committed in their presence, action can be taken against them with cowardice charges. Under this provision even the IGP is responsible for the police inaction.

According to the President of the Bar Association of Sri Lanka, the present government has failed to protect the law and order in the country.

7. MUSLIM COUNTRIES WARN SRI LANKA GOVERNMENT

The government has now come under immense pressure from various parties to ban the Bodu Bala Sena and several other extremist organizations. Many Muslim countries have already warned the Sri Lankan government to take immediate action to bring what they term as 'anti-Muslim' violence to an end.

The Organization of Islamic Countries (OIC), the second largest International Organization next to the United Nations which has a membership of 57 Muslim states spread over four continents. It is the collective voice of the Muslims to safeguard and protect the rights of Muslims. The OIC having its head office in Saudi Arabia, has already lodged its protest with Sri Lanka Embassy in Riyadh regarding the present anti-Muslim activities in Sri Lanka.

It is reported that Bangladesh, Iran, Iraq, Egypt, Indonesia, Kuwait, Malaysia, Maldives, Nigeria, Pakistan, Palestine, Turkey, UAE, Saudi Arabia and Qatar - through their diplomatic missions in Colombo - have raised concerns over the present state of affairs in Sri Lanka and the 'growing antipathy' between the Sinhala and Muslim communities. Most of these countries supported Sri Lanka at the recently held UNHRC session in Geneva where a resolution against Sri Lanka was presented by the US.

It is widely speculated among political circles that some of these countries - which are sympathetic towards the Muslim community of Sri Lanka - take action to revise their visa regulations pertaining to Sri Lankan workers applying for jobs in their countries. According to the statistics of the Bureau of Foreign Employment, hundreds of thousands of Sri Lankans presently working in many Muslim countries in the Middle East making it the largest avenue of foreign income for the Sri Lankan economy which is largely dependent on migrant workers. Apart from the Middle Eastern region, there is a large number of Sri Lankan workers in countries in South East Asia.

Realizing this threat, the government entrusted External Affairs Minister Professor G.L. Peiris with the task of presenting a detailed report to diplomats of Muslim countries on the clashes which occurred in Beruwala, Aluthgama, Dharga Town and several other parts of the country. The External Affairs Minister would soon brief the ambassadors and high commissioners of all the Muslim countries - not only those from the Gulf region, but also other Muslim countries.

8. SRI LANKA MUSLIMS IN THE US VOICE CONCERN

The Sri Lankan-American Muslim community in the US staged a rally last week (23 June 2014) to protest the alleged killings and violence against Muslims back home.

Over 400 Sri Lankan Muslims mostly from Chicago, New Jersey, Washington DC, Virginia and Connecticut, turned up for the demonstration which took place across from the United Nations in Dag Hammarskjold Plaza, New York.

The demonstrators included several Pakistanis and African Muslims who expressed their sympathy and solidarity with the Sri Lankan Muslims.

The anger was directed mostly at Bodu Bala Sena (BBS), described as a "marauding extremist nationalist Buddhist organization whose violence was incompatible with the teachings of the Buddha."

The Association of Sri Lankan Muslims in North America (TASMINA), which organized the rally, said there is deep concern among Muslims both in Sri Lanka and overseas about the rising anti-Muslim fervour fuelled by a fraction of this extremist wing.

The Association has also sent a letter to UN Secretary General Ban Ki-moon which said that 'the Muslims of Sri Lanka like other communities that live in the country, have co-existed in peace and harmony. Following this premeditated and meticulously executed plan of attack, the Muslims have a widespread fear of persecution and insecurity.

Furthermore, the letter pointed out that 'in a continuing manifestation of impunity, no legal action has been or is being taken against any of the persons responsible for the attacks against Muslims or other minorities. Conversely, hatred is being permitted, often including through the state-controlled media, and other organizations.'

The letter exhorted the Secretary General 'to intervene with the Sri Lankan Government to prevent hatred and violence against Muslims and other communities in Sri Lanka, and to initiate an early warning mechanism, followed by an accountability process, to identify perpetrators of violence with a view of justice.'

9. PRIVATE SECTOR TAKES A STRONG STAND

The private sector of Sri Lanka took a strong stand on the matter, urging the government to resolve this issue and take necessary action to safeguard the rights of all communities. Sri Lanka's National Chamber of Commerce and several other organizations representing the private sector of the country issued a statement strongly condemning the communal violence in several areas of the country.

Signatories to the joint statement were National Chamber of Commerce of Sri Lanka, Federation of Chambers of Commerce and Industry of Sri Lanka (FCCISL), Chamber of Young Lankan Entrepreneurs (COYLE), International Chamber of Commerce Sri Lanka (ICCSL), Joint Apparel Association Forum (JAAF), National Chamber of Exporters of Sri Lanka, the Ceylon National Chamber of Industries and the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce (CCC).

The statement strongly urges the law enforcement agencies to prosecute all those who incited and perpetrated communal violence in Aluthgama and elsewhere and to act immediately and impartially to maintain peace as well as law and order.

The private sector institutions also requested:

- The law enforcement agencies to prosecute all those who incited and perpetrated communal violence in Aluthgama and elsewhere and to act immediately and impartially to maintain peace as well as law and order.
- The authorities to enforce the Rule of Law impartially and prevent extremist elements from causing disharmony.
- The citizens to act with restraint, shun violence and respect each other's religious and cultural beliefs and identities.
- Religious, political and civil society leaders to promote peace and harmony amongst all Sri Lankans.
- All citizens to think and act as one family, with a common vision for a peaceful and prosperous Sri Lanka.

It is now clear that every right thinking group is of the firm belief that the government should take necessary action to control the rabid extremist groups which disrupt ethnic and religious harmony in Sri Lanka.

- (b) as a result of an act which constitutes an offence under the Prevention of terrorism Act. No. 48 of 1979, committed by any person.

15. (3) Where an investigation conducted by the Commission under section 14 discloses the infringement or imminent infringement of a fundamental right by executive or administrative action, or by any person referred to in paragraph (b) of section 14, the Commission may where it appears to the Commission that it is not appropriate to refer such matter for conciliation or mediation, or where it appears to the Commission that it is appropriate to refer the matter for conciliation or mediation, but all or any of the parties object or objects to conciliation or mediation, or where the attempt at conciliation or mediation is not successful –

- (a) recommend to the appropriate authorities, that prosecution or other proceedings be instituted against the person or persons infringing such fundamental right;
- (b) refer the matter to any court having jurisdiction to hear and determine such matter in accordance with such rules of court as may be prescribed therefore, and within such time as is provided for invoking the jurisdiction of such court, by any person;
- (c) make such recommendations as it may think fit to the appropriate authority or person or persons concerned, with a view to preventing or remedying such infringement or the continuation of such infringement.

12. PRESS STATEMENTS

(a) Rev. Gnanasara Thera of Bodu Bala Sena - Question and Answer Sunday Leader - June 29, 2014

The BBS and the Rev. Gnanasara Thero have been the focus of many issues in the recent past over hate speeches and ant-Muslim activities and the recent Aluthgama incident. Many have criticized the monk for his aggressive nature and have called for his arrest and the banning of the organization after the incident.

In an interview with The Sunday Leader - 29 June 2014, the Rev. Ganansara Thero said that in order to make the country pay attention to what he was trying to reveal concerning the threat of the extremist Muslim Organisations that the country faces, he had to make a loud noise.

Q: Many quarters have called for the banning of the BBS and for your arrest for the incidents that took place in Aluthgama and Beruwela recently. How would you respond to this call?

A: In my own simple language what I have to say is that I have no time to respond to calls made by these mad people. What is the basis of their allegations and what have we done that deserves the banning of our organization? We have not assaulted anyone, set fire to anyone's property, damaged any churches or mosques or done any such things. All we have done is vocalizing our concerns in open forums regarding the threats of certain extremist elements that the country faces. If our actions to reveal the enemy forces are the wrong we have done, then let them ban us or remand us.

What we are doing is what these ministers who have been brought to power by the mandate of the people to safeguard the security and sovereignty of this country, should have been doing in the first place. Had they done their duty instead of being immersed in their own ministries, we would not have to do what we did. These ministers, when they have failed in their duties, are accusing us without understanding first the ground reality of things that are happening. We are very saddened by their stance as we are not clear on what basis they want us banned.

Q: There are speculations that Jihardists are operating in Sri Lanka, which has been one of the major concerns for the BBS as well. However the military has vehemently denied these charges and said that there are no Jihardists within Sri Lanka. What is your opinion?

A: Well the military cannot speak openly about certain matter like politicians do. We have a great amount of respect and regard for the military, police and the intelligence establishments for defeating terrorism. But we are in agreement with the statement made by Minister Patali Champika Ranawaka regarding the existence of Jihardists within the country. They have yet to spread in a large way here, but there are several mushrooming organizations, which is a clear indication of the existence and the threats that we could face in the future if they are not detected. Over the past two years we have reveled several matters and today these have been proved right.

Not only Jihardists but there are also several extremist Muslim organizations that are spreading the germs of extremism in the country. In fact even the increasing Muslim population is a huge problem for us. But we have not protested against that increase. However our concerns are that they are converting Tamil and Sinhalese women to Islam. That is being done in unethical ways, such as through cheating them, rape and deliberate brainwashing. We see these are also as elements of extremism.

For instance the Thowheed Jamath is a very dangerous organization, and very responsibly we can say that they have received weapons training and have links to Tamil Nadu. More over these organizations could be used by those who want to destabilize and divide this country. Even when they ridiculed Buddhism and Lord Buddha saying he consume meat, we did nothing. We have only complained to the police very democratically.

Q: You have been known for your aggressive manner in which you speak, and many have accused you of behaviour unbecoming to a Buddhist Monk. What is your response to these charges?

A: There have been many books written on the dangers of Jihardism in this region and also other extremist organizations that have threatened world peace. However in spite of the impending dangers, no one has taken any action to deal with this issue. We are a nation that has suffered for 30 years because of the war. We too tried at first to hold discussions and try to resolve these issues gently and amicably. However when no one heeded our concerns, we had to resort to a more aggressive manner to make our concerns heard. We did not take up arms, but instead we only said it out loudly and now we are found fault with because we tried to highlight this threat. Due to our openness as monks we have come forth and said what we felt loudly. We have not held secret meetings overseas and have not betrayed the country in any manner.

People can ridicule and punish us in any manner they want but some day they will realize what we tried to do was for the betterment of the country. You should not worry about the shape of the bell but instead focus on the message it is trying to convey by its loud chime.

Q: There are allegations that the violence in Aluthgama was triggered by your speech made during the rally. Do you accept this charge?

A: This is a completely wrong notion. We did stage the rally but we also calmed the people in the area and the violence began only about two hours after the rally ended. This whole incident occurred only after the people coming from Dharga town were attacked by some Muslims from within the Mosque.

(b) Minister Patale Champika Ranawaka
General Secretary, Jathika Hela Urumaya (JHU)
Sunday Times - June 29, 2014

Though he did not agree with statements made by Ven. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara Thera, he defended the role of the Bodu Bala Sena.

What happened in Aluthgama was a localized incident. Unfortunately, when the initial incident took place at Dharga town where a monk was obstructed and assaulted the police did not act.

Police inaction as well as the arrogance of the youth contributed to this situation. It was only after the monk was hospitalized and an agitation was staged the suspects were arrested. The law should be enforced as soon as possible. When you delay, people believe justice is denied and they take the law into their hands.

When the monks and the villagers were returning from the hospital, the people were stoned. During this incident a monk was assaulted and was unconscious. The rumour spread the monk was killed.

Unfortunately some government members speak of Buddhist terrorism. There is nothing called Buddhist terrorism. First the government should control these elements that are tarnishing our Buddhist society. Some Muslim Ministers are trying to propagate wild allegations against the Buddhists and destabilize Sri Lanka. The government is allowing Muslim ministers to do this. The public should know that there is an increase in the Muslim population. Their social segregation programme is another issue. More mosques are coming up. There are fears of involvement of illegal businesses too.

All politicians should be responsible to their citizens and they should not propagate in international forums. Hartals will not help.

Hate speech should be controlled. That is our culture. As Buddhist we are proud there is nothing about revenge attacks in Buddhism.

The responsibility is not only with the government. Society in general and religious leaders should also take responsibly. There should be a direct link between religious leaders when these types of incidents occur. When the incidents took place in Grandpass there was such a dialogue, though there were different views.

The government should not vacillate. We should implement the law. We should find the truth. For instance, the incident at Nolimit and Panadura. The incident took place last Saturday and so far the outcome of the investigations have not been made public. Rumours are spreading. We should reveal the truth.

As the JHU we call on the Buddhist society not to incite against any other community. We have shown that if anybody tries to impose anything on us they will be severely dealt with. Self-defence is our tool. We can protect our nation and sovereignty. We can preserve Buddhism. We appeal to Muslim intellectuals do not close your society. Tell us what are the organizations you have? Do not try to groom al-Qaeda roots. The first victims will be your society.

(c) Mr. Tariq Mahmud

President, National Shoora Council - 10 July 2014

National Shoora Council - NSC responds to BBS's call to ban the Shoora Council

The National Shoora (Consultative) Council (NSC), a grouping of national level Muslim Organizations, including a cross-section of the community's intelligentsia and activists is not surprised at the Bodu Bala Sena's (BBS) call to ban the NSC. The call exposes the BBS as an anti-national project, dedicated to destroying centuries of peaceful amity and co-existence between the Sinhalese and the Muslims of this country by spreading hate, based on falsehood. Following its fully paid visit in October 2011 to Norway, a country which nearly succeeded in creating 'Eelam' in Sri Lanka, where the BBS met a group from the Tamil diaspora and Islamic-phobic Norwegians, it appears most convincingly, that the BBS has undertaken a dubious contract to spread anti-Muslim venom aimed at destabilizing Sri Lanka through racial conflicts. Western Powers behind the Norwegians will benefit in the UN Human Rights Council. Sri Lanka regrettably will have to pay for the crime BBS is perpetrating on the country.

We have not forgotten that the BBS's first target was the All Ceylon Jammiyathul Ulama (ACJU), the President of which went to the UNHRC in Geneva in March 2012 in defense of the country against the Western sponsored resolution on Sri Lanka. That was a patriotic role of the ACJU notwithstanding the benefits to the Muslims from the resolution. Shockingly, the BBS in an anti-national move, took up the Halal issue, later on, as a pretext to spew insults on the ACJU and the Muslims. The Chambers of Commerce know very well that the Halal Certification benefitted mainly the non-Muslim exporters. BBS side tracked the benefits to the Sinhala exporters and launched an unforgivable attack on the ACJU following the Muslim organization's pro-Sri Lankan role in the UNHRC. The BBS's vituperative attack on the ACJU exposed the anti-national role of the BBS.

Within a month of the ACJU returning from Geneva, the Dambulla Mosque came under 'death' threats at a time when the BBS was at its formative stages. Since then, we have seen how the ordinarily harmless Muslims of this country, became the singled out target of an unceasing hate campaign launched by the BBS, from post-Dambulla beginnings down to the Aluthgama mayhem.

Every one of the issues raised by the BBS against the Muslims was false, fabricated or exaggerated.

Violence unleashed in Aluthgama on June 15 and 16 followed directly from the hate speech of the BBS General Secretary. Any law student will know, the speech is a text book case of incitement to violence against the Muslims of Aluthgama and Beruwala. The world knew the truth overnight, without Muslims having to brief anybody.

Did those who incited the crowd at Aluthgama against the Muslims think of the damage to the country and to Buddhism world-wide? Did they not put the millions of Sinhalese sweating in Middle-East Muslim countries to shame? If the hate speeches in Aluthgama and the subsequent destruction which disgraced Sri Lanka across the globe and for which BBS needs to be made accountable, are not anti-national, what then are they?

We have not forgotten, that it was the Muslims of Aluthgama and Beruwala not the BBS at the call of the Sheikh of the world famous Buhary Masjid in Beruwala, who gathered in their thousands opposite the US Embassy in Colombo on 15 March 2012 to protest against the US sponsored resolution against Sri Lanka, notwithstanding the fact that the resolution would have benefitted the country's Muslims. On that occasion too, the Muslims acted in the greater national interest of the country sacrificing their communal benefits. Now listen to the speech of the BBS at Aluthgama on Youtube and tell the country, whether, was it right for a Buddhist monk to have incited the Sinhala youths to destroy the economy and with it the hearts of those very same Muslims of Aluthgama and Beruwala, who protested against the powerful US? If these are not anti-national crimes committed by the BBS, what then are they?

BBS has turned the wheel a full circle, to the detriment of the country! Aluthgama Muslims were entitled to expect the nationalist Buddhist monks to have come to their rescue. But it was the US that made the strongest plea on behalf of the very Muslims who demonstrated against the US. BBS has lost on the good-will that existed between the Sinhala and Muslim communities by its anti-national charade. The US has won them over. Can anyone deny that the BBS is an anti-national project? With the BBS in full charge, Sri Lanka does not need any other enemy!

The NSC is therefore not surprised at the BBS's request to ban the NSC. We at the NSC will not ask for banning the BBS because we need this dialogue with the people of the country, whose mind the BBS had sought to poison with falsehood. BBS must respond to these questions, without seeking to veil us by banning. We are equally keen that all those responsible for the carnage in Aluthgama must be prosecuted and welcome the positive steps taken by the Bar Association of Sri Lanka to stand for justice for the victims.

NSC is not an NGO. It is a grouping of national level Muslim organizations, a cross-section of the Muslim intelligentsia, former Ambassadors of Sri Lanka, well known professionals, heads of affiliated Muslim organizations and activists, all of whom are volunteers who have merged together after the emergence of the BBS.

The NSC has absolutely no link whatsoever with anyone using the name Shoora elsewhere in the Muslim world. The NSC is funded entirely from the voluntary contributions of its members and affiliated organizations. We have declined foreign invitations to present our internal issues elsewhere and also offers of foreign funding. We liked to be identified as a traditional self-reliant grouping of volunteers, whose love for the country will always be beyond question. We strongly believe that all these passing problems could be internally resolved, knowing well the depth of good-will that exists amongst all communities in the country.

(d) Mr. M.M. Zuhair, PC

Deputy President, National Shoora Council - 05 July 2014

National Shoora Council urges those accusing Al-Qaida presence in Sri Lanka to complain to IGP without demonizing Muslims:

Muslims have suffered enough, earlier at the hands of the LTTE for not supporting 'Eelam' and now at the hands of Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) inspired hate groups, displaying inexplicable intolerance towards a minority, which stood in its entirety with the Sinhala majority in the country's struggle to defeat the LTTE. The BBS led violence in Aluthgama, Beruwala, Welipenna and surrounding areas had cost the Muslims over Rs.5 billion in economic loss while the loss to the country would obviously be very much more.

However allegations of jihadist groups operating in Sri Lanka and being involved in the Aluthgama violence, which are absolutely false, are hurting the community, even more that the attacks on the Muslims in Aluthgama. The allegations are being made by those who have no defense or apology for the serial crimes unleashed by hate charged mobs on innocent Muslims on 15 and 16 June 2014.

The National Shoora (Consultative) Council (NSC), an alliance of national level Muslim organizations in Sri Lanka urges those making allegations of the existence in Sri Lanka of Al-Qaida, Lashker-e Taiba (LeT), Indian Mujahideen (IM) etc. to promptly make complaints with supporting evidence to the Inspector General of Police for a full investigation and action against them, without an hours delay. The rabble rousing speech at Aluthgama on 15 June identified the Sri Lanka Police and the Sri Lanka armed forces as a 'Sinhala Police' and 'Sinhala armed forces'. What prevents those few from the majority Sinhalese, making these fabricated accusations against the Muslims, lodging their complaint with evidence with the 'Sinhala Police'?

We dare them to forthwith complain to the IGP, without demonizing the peace loving patriotic Muslims by uttering falsehoods to the public at meetings and press conferences. The NSC assures fullest cooperation not only in the investigations but also in dealing according to law against such 'devils behind every bush' if any, Indeed complaints to IG Police and firm action thereon are the greatest favours the accusers can do to the besieged Muslims of Sri Lanka, without poisoning the vast majority of Sinhala professionals, intellectuals and the masses with falsehood.

The Ministry of Defense has from time to time refuted such allegations made mostly by foreign intelligence agencies many of whom make the accusations to legitimize the entry of foreign powers into Sri Lanka for the collateral purpose of destabilizing the country and establishing a puppet regime, as these powers have done in other countries. Allegations of the existence of Muslim terror groups are often made by those in the payroll of these foreign powers, which too need to be investigated.

(e) Provincial Council Minister Udaya Gammanpila, Jathika Hela Urumaya (JHU)
Ceylon Today - July 6, 2014

I warned in this column dated 20 January 2013 that we were heading towards Sinhala-Muslim riots similar to that of 1915. In response, Muslim leaders sarcastically told me to inform the police instead of inviting them for a dialogue. I pointed out in this column of 10 February 2013 that the new rigid halal policy of the Muslim community would destroy our intercommunity food exchange culture causing an irreparable damage to national unity. Muslim leaders rudely responded to me stating "we don't want Gammanpila's kiribath". This column of 1 September 2013 wrote an open letter to Muslims titled 'To Muslim brothers with Love'. I explained in detail how Buddhists have tolerated provocations by Muslim extremists and urged the Muslim community to work towards eradicating extremism within them.

Unfortunately, my predictions have come true. The Muslim leaders, who sarcastically responded to me, are now maintaining dead silence. Muslim politicians who rejected our invitation for a dialogue are now blaming Buddhists, bashing the Bodu Bala Sena (BBS).

In the recent past, there were deliberate attempts by Muslim extremists to provoke Buddhists expecting Sinhala-Muslim clashes. Their ulterior motive would be to isolate Sri Lanka as much as possible with the international community. When the BBS and the JHU complain about the existence of Muslim extremist organizations in Sri Lanka, the government flatly rejected the claim.

NOTE:

The racial harmony and peace existed during the British rule in Ceylon was shattered as a result of the Sinhala-Muslim riots in 1915. The riots which broke out in 1915 was a clash between business rivalry among the Sinhalese and "Coast Moors" (Indian Muslims) in Ceylon, rather than the Muslims who were residents from the ancient time. The Gampola Perahera case, came as the ignition for the racial disturbances. Both Sinhalese and Muslims suffered as a result of the unfortunate riots in 1915.

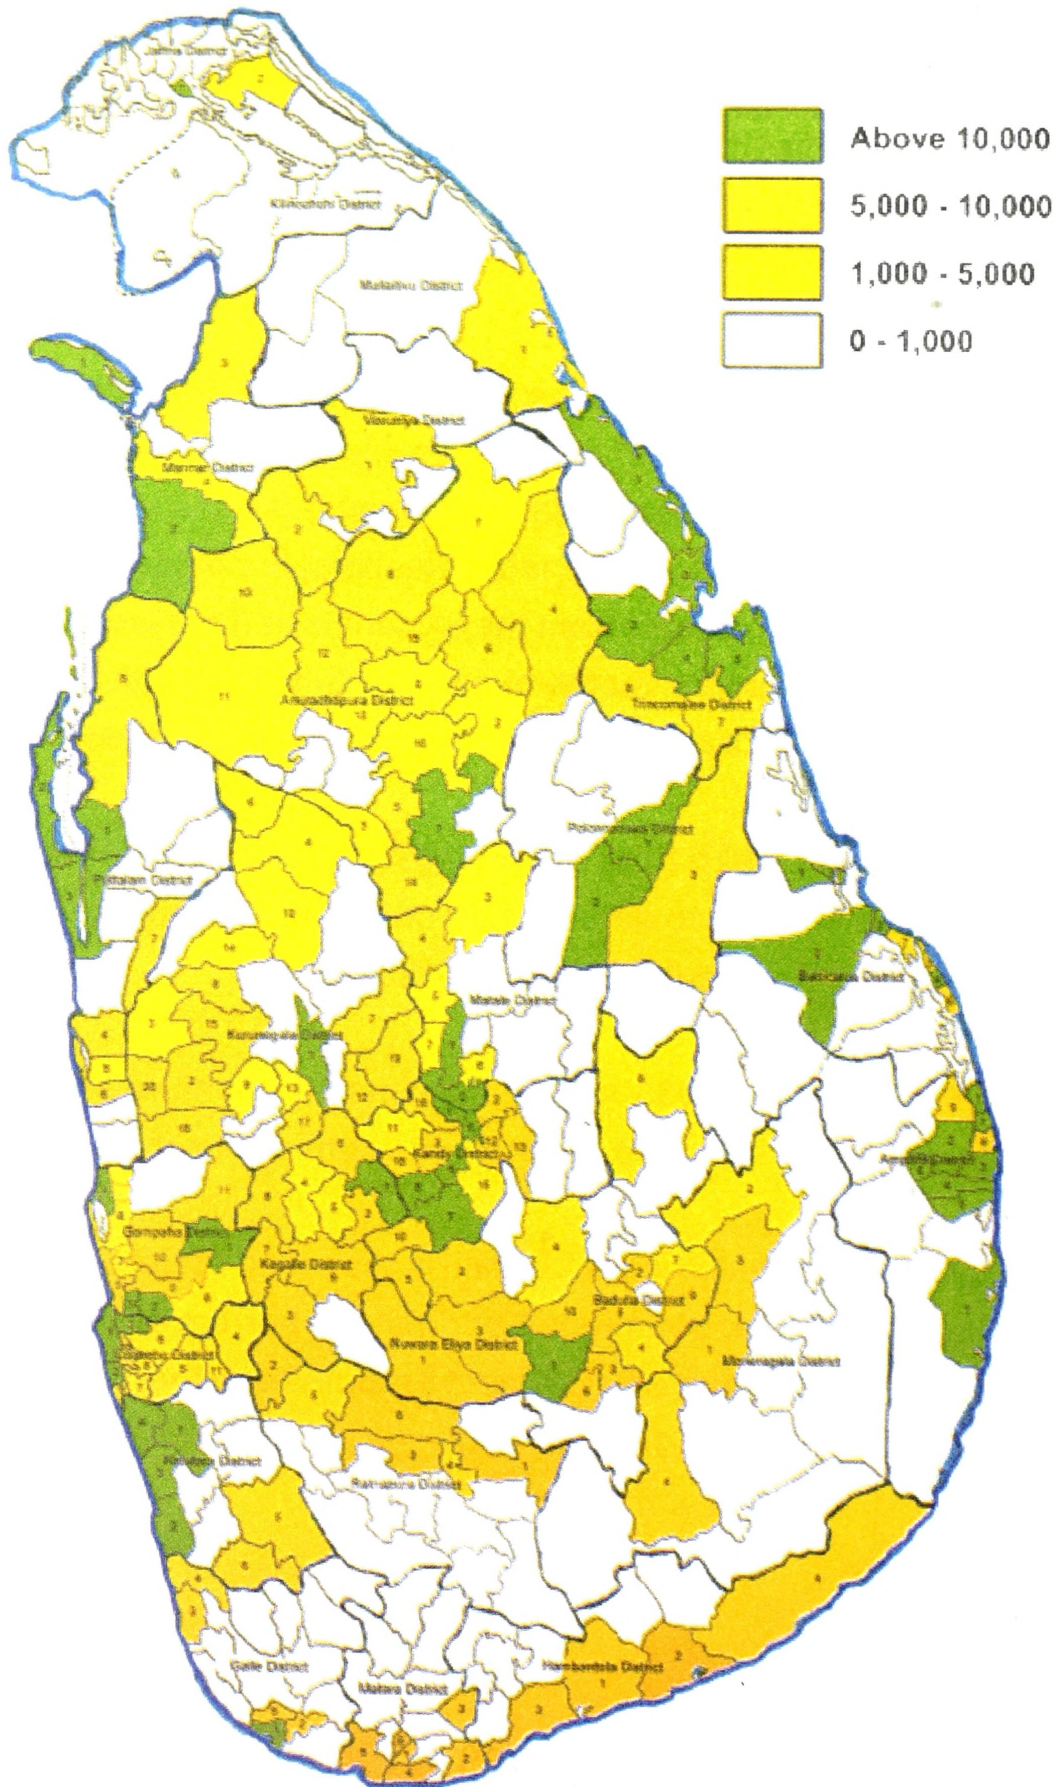

The impact of the 1915 riots encouraged the Muslims to form various organizations in order to defend their constitutional rights as well as to better their social and cultural backwardness.

The principal effect of 1983 July riots against the Tamil was the formation of LTTE, 30 years of war and negative economic growth.

Formation of National Shooru Council is the result of Hate Speeches and Anti-Muslim activities of Sinhala Buddhist supporters of Bodu Bala Sena and Jathika Hela Urumaya for the last 18 months and the riot at Aluthgama and Beruwala on 15 and 16 June 2014

14. HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI-MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN SRI LANKA

BY BODU BALA SENA AND JATHIKA HELA URUMAYA

(i) BODU BALA SENA MAHARGAMA RESOLUTION

The Bodu Bala Sena passed ten resolutions at a meeting in Maharagama on 17 February 2013.

01. The Sinhalese community should work with commitment and dedication from today to stabilize Buddhist Sinhalism in this country.
02. The All Ceylon Jamiyathul Ulama should be dissolved immediately.
03. Halaal foods should be banned in Sri Lanka.
04. Government should investigate on funds coming from the Middle Eastern countries to the Ulama Council.
05. People involved in illegal propaganda activities should be eliminated from the country before 17 March 2013.
06. Government should launch investigation on activities of fundamentalists groups and the funds they receive.
07. While the government should investigate on NGOs and their source of funding a common policy should be adopted on this issue.
08. Sending Sri Lanka women as house maids to the Middle Eastern countries should be banned.
09. The government should take measures to protect Buddhist temples and Buddhist people across the country including the North and the East.
10. The Government should take necessary legal action to implement the resolutions submitted by the Buddha Sasana Commission to safeguard the Buddhism.

The above ten resolutions passed by the BBS were handed over to the government.

(ii) NATIONWIDE HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES

- 1.(2) January 07, 2013: A calendar against Halal certification is distributed at a Buddhist temple by the Chief Incumbent of the Temple.
- 2.(11) January 22, 2013: The BBS declares that all newly established mosques are 'bunkers of Jihad'. It demands for information of all the mosques in the country within 7 days, failing which it will have to take the next course action against them, it warns.
- 3.(14) January 23, 2013: Neth FM airs a programme entitled: "Why Muslims are building mosques, not schools", why no support is given to poor Muslim families, and why they are slaughtering hundreds of cattle during the Hajj festival from the money they receive from Arab countries.
- 4.(15) January 23, 2013: Minister Champika Ranawaka states that Jathika Hela Urumaya (JHU) in collaboration with the All Ceylon Buddhist Congress is considering issuing standard certificates instead of the Halal Certificate.
- 5.(18) January 27, 2013: According to Western Provincial Council member Mujibur Rahuman, anti-Muslim leaflets are being distributed in many Buddhist Temples during the Full Moon (Poya) day. The leaflets ask the Buddhists to boycott halal products, not to sell properties to Muslims and boycott Muslim businesses.
- 6.(24) February 07, 2013: The Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) announces that the year 2013 is the year of "Halal eradication". They say they have the blessings of the President of Sri Lanka to continue their activities.
- 7.(66) March 05, 2013: Rev. Shagoda Vipassi Complains that "Sri Lanka's history is altered in grade 11 Islam book".
- 8.(67) March 05, 2013: Propaganda in websites to boycott the "Mohideen beg: songs in Buddhist Temples. (Even though he was not a Buddhist, Mohideen Beg sang the most popular Buddhist theme songs in the Sinhala language.)

- 9.(68) March 05, 2013: JHU publishes a book titled "Halal Facts and Lies" in Sinhala, criticizing the Halal concept. Upon receiving the first copy of the book, Rev. Omalpa Sobitha says "we are not against Halal, but we oppose the concept being imposed on other communities."
- 10.(70) March 07, 2013: Champika Ranawaka says "Jamiyathul Ulama" do not have the right to issue the Halal Certificates.
- 11.(74) March 11, 2013: BBS President Rev. Kirama Vimalajothi announces "we won the Halal issue but we will continue our activities. We will deliver a special announcement in Kandy gathering on 17th March. This is a Buddhist nation. Hence we do not need Halal."
- 12.(76) March 11, 2013: Poster campaigns start against the "Fardha" (Muslim women's dress) with statements such as "Ban burqa in Sri Lanka" "Assure the security of the country now" and "Recognise the burqa as black tiger terrorism."
- 13.(77) March 11, 2013: All Ceylon Jamiyyathul Ulama announces the withdrawal of Halal certification for goods consumed in Sri Lanka. The Bodu Bala Sena considers this a victory.
- 14.(78) March 12, 2013: Complaints on a Sinhala website that at the March 13th media brief by the ACJU, held with the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce (CCC) and the Maha Sanga, when the ACJU announced the removal of the Halal label, the podium was in front the Buddhist monks, which was disrespectful to the monks.
- 15.(81) March 14, 2013: Bodu Bala Sena Secretary Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara says that they do not accept the decision taken by the ACJU, regarding the Halal issue.

- 16.(83) March 14, 2013: The Sri Lanka Restaurants Association announces that from 1st April onwards, they will no longer be buying products with the Halal logo.
- 17.(87) March 15, 2013: Minister Champika Ranawaka launches his book: "Islamic fundamentalism Past, Present & Future and Al Jihad & Al Qaida", an analysis of how Muslim fundamentalism is impacting the country. At the book launch, he calls for the deportation of any Arabs who have come to Sri Lanka to teach Arabic in Madrasas immediately. He accuses them of being the cause of some of the recent disputes in the country such as the "Halal" issue. According to Minister Ranawaka, Madrasas are responsible for promoting extremist ideas such as the Abhaya for Muslim women.
- 18.(92) March 17, 2013: A Sinhalese website states that Rizvie Mufthi, President of the Ceylon Jamiyyathul Ulama (ACJU) "should be arrested".
- 19.(97) March 18, 2013: JHU Parliamentarian Rev. Omalpe Sobitha says 'Go to Allah's country if you need Halal.'
- 20.(98) March 19, 2013: The Bodu Bala Sena accuses a Muslim extremist group of the recent assault on Sri Lankan Buddhist monk in India. (However, the CCTV in the railway station proved the actual attacker was not a Muslim.)
- 21.(110) March 27, 2013: The JHU claims in a statement that the South East region is being devoured by Muslim fundamentalism and extremism and that "the concept of a separate Muslim Home Land is gaining popularity amongst the Muslim community" in those areas.
- 22.(119) March 30, 2013: A 'Haram' certified logo appears on products sold in the market, identical to the ACJU's 'Halal' certificate.
- 23.(128) April 01, 2013: Minister Champika Ranawaka strictly opposes the Halal mechanism which was proposed by Muslim Ministers. The latter argued that Halal is one of the rights of Muslims and measures need to be taken to sustain this right. Ranawaka, however, claims that Muslims should not consume Halal products and it should not be provided by ACJU.

- 24.(131) April 03, 2013: Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) General Secretary Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara states that they are going to establish a Muslim division in BBS and that "Traditional Muslims are asking us to protect the society and country from Muslims fundamentalists".
- 25.(136) April 03, 2013: The Bodu Bala Sena alleges that Muslim ministers are resettling Muslim fundamentalists in the North and this is the main reason for the failure in resettling the Tamils. The coordinator of Bodu Bala Sena claims that they haven't been behind the attacks on Muslims' mosques and shops though Muslim fundamentalists blame them.
- 26.(149) April 18, 2013: President of BBS Rev. Kirama Vimalajothi postulates that Islamic terrorist groups such as Al-Qaeda and 'Jihad activity' are active in Sri Lanka. He claims that these terrorists groups are mainly active in the Eastern province, through the Jamiyyathul Ulama.
- 27.(150) May 01, 2013: Rev. Athuruliya Rathna of Jathika Hela Urumaya states that Muslim employees who are working in the following hospitals; Kalpitiya District Hospital, Puttalam Base Hospital, Mampuri Rural Hospital and Alankuda Central Hospital are wearing Muslim garb instead of their hospital uniforms. They are therefore, under the influence of Islamic fundamentalists groups. If this continues it will create serious issues amongst communities, so proper action should be taken.
- 28.(152) May 08, 2013: Together with the JHU National Organizer, Nishantha Warnasinghe, JHU leader Rev. Omalpe Sobitha proclaims that Muslim fundamentalist activities are more horrific than LTTE terrorism and are increasing day-by-day. He cited the birth control vaccinations imported by a Pakistani, illegal cigarette imports and the Kalpitiya Hospital uniforms issue as examples.

- 29.(154) May 08, 2013: JHU leader Rev. Omalpe Sobitha, admits that they are racist and religious fanatics but that they are not the authors of racism and religious fanaticism in Sri Lanka. He accuses Muslims of being the drug trade, (pills, birth control vials and heroin) in the country.
- 30.(156) May 16, 2013: The BBS states that Sri Lanka is not a multi-racial or multi-religious country but a Sinhalese Buddhist country and that "there is no place for those who do not accept this."
- 31.(160) May 28, 2013: The current Minister of Agriculture, Agrarian Development, Irrigation, Trade and Environment in Western Provincial Council and JHU party member Udaya Gammanpila justifies that hate campaign against Muslims, saying "(on Madrasas) there is a law this country. Just because you are a religious institution, you cannot abuse or disobey the law. Secondly, for the last 500 years they have been eating Halal food; we have never grudged this. But when they try to force us also to eat Halal, of course we have to resist. As much as we respect their values and beliefs, they should respect ours. In 1597, there were only 4,000 Muslims in this country. Now they have grown to two million because of religious conversions. If we didn't allow them to marry Sinhala Buddhist girls, the scenario would have been a lot different. This is why I say we are too innocent and too tolerant. Unfortunately instead of appreciating that, they abuse it."
- 32.(162) June 03, 2013: President of the Sinhala Ravaya, Rev. Akmeemana Dayarathna calls for the closure of every place where cattle is slaughtered and denies allegations by Dewatagaha Mosque trustee Reyaz Salley that the anti-cattle slaughter tack is politically motivated.
- 33.(163) June 04, 2013: Kalmunai Subadhraramaya Viharadhipathi Rev. Sagaratna writes that 'Sri Lanka is only for Buddhists.'
- 34.(164) June 06, 2013: The BBS claims that Madrasas are bases for Islamic fundamentalism and that they are not registered under the National Education Policy. The BBS also alleges that Muslims create Islamic fundamentalism through the Shura Council and that members of the Sri Lanka Jamiyyathul Ulama recently met with a Muslim 'terrorist' in Qatar.

- 35.(165) June 06, 2013: The BBS proclaims that after "winning" the Halal issue they are going to oppose the establishment of an Arabic college dedicated to teaching Sharia Law. The group argues that the Muslim community has survived without implementing Sharia Law so far and that by introducing Sharia law, Muslims are trying to create a separate law, like the LTTE tried to create a separate nation. By establishing the Shura (Consultative) Council, Muslims are going to introduce "Wahabism" to Sri Lanka. The Government should take action against the establishment of Sharia Law in Sri Lanka.
- 36.(169) June 11, 2013: BBS General Secretary request the government to immediately stop the building of the proposed University for Ulema.
- 37.(172) June 09, 2013: The Bodu Bala Sena launches an online petition calling for the ban of the face veil (burqa and niqab).
- 38.(176) June 15-26, 2013: The Sinhala Ravaya organization marches from Kataragama Kirivehera in Hambantota district to Colombo against cattle slaughter, causing confrontations with Christians and Muslims alike along the way. Upon reaching Temple Trees they hand over their petition against cattle slaughter to the President.
- 39.(177) June 17, 2013: BBS General Secretary announces in a public meeting that "the Muslims cannot change our country into a Middle Eastern country" and also that "they (Muslims) have to stop wearing niqab (veil).
- 40.(182) June 20, 2013: Newspaper article in response to an article that questions whether racism is a social/political problem, denies that Sinhalese-dominated political parties are racist and claims that the Muslim political parties are racist.

- 41.(185) June 28, 2013: BBS General Secretary issues a public warning that the minorities will be attacked within the next month, stating that the government has to take action against the minority organizations before the July full moon day, failing which the BBS as the unofficial police force will attack the minority organizations. He also informs that in future a 'Buddhist Security committee' will be formed in every Sinhalese village to prevent other races from entering said villages.
- 42.(191) July 9, 2013: The BBS launches an online petition calling for the ban of the face veil (burqa and niqab), urging Secretary to the Ministry of Defence to ban the Burqa and Niqab in Sri Lanka. The petition says: "The Secretary of Defence Mr. Gotabaya Rajapaksha: Ban the Burqa and Niqab in Sri Lanka".
- 43.(194) July 13, 2013: Bodu Bala Sena General Secretary say "we are not against the Tamils or Muslims. We have presented our policy on Muslim Fundamentalism. Many small groups have formed in this country to spread Muslim fundamentalism." He denies the allegation that the BBS is behind the mosque attacks. But reiterates that it is "against the Niqab, this should be banned, there is no injustice in this. He says that the majority of crimes such as smuggling, avoidance of income tax, trafficking of drugs, etc. are perpetrated by Muslims.
- 44.(202) July 27, 2013: Chief Incumbent of the Mahiyangana Raja Maha Viharaya Rev. Urulahwatthe Dhamma Rakkitha criticizes minister Rauf Hakeem for making false allegations about an attack of the Mahiyangana Mosque and therefore promoting religious unrest. He proclaims that as a responsible minister Hakeem should prove the allegations by providing authentic evidence and that measures should be taken against him. The monk denies the existence of the Mosque named Jumamah Mosque in the vicinity of Mahiyangana.
- 45.(204) July 30, 2013: Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara says the Bodu Bala Sena will recommence its battle against the Halal Certification to root it out entirely from the country. General Secretary says that although the group had stepped away from the battle against Halal because of the intervention of the Maha Sanga, the problem has not yet been resolved. He says that although the ACJU had promised to remove the Halal logo from products in the Sri Lankan market that promise has been broken.

46.(215) September 1, 2013 Media Interview: Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) Secretary Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara states in an interview to the Australia based Global Mail that "Any Muslims, they are very bad people here. They are creating all problems here." According to the article the BBS members make unsupported claims, on scant evidence, that Muslims dominate Sri Lanka's business community and provoke religious fundamentalism, and that Muslim doctor secretly sterilize Sinhalese women.

47.(216) September 2, 2013 Media Announcement: Jathika Hela Urumaya (JHU) states that many banned goods are smuggled into Sri Lanka through a Muslim business channel. The JHU also alleges that there had been several instances where Muslims have tried to smuggle drugs into the country. These remarks were made by the national organizer of the JHU Mr. Nishantha Sri Warnasinghe in a media announcement issued by him regarding the confiscation of a container which contained more than 250KG of Brown sugar narcotic drugs concealed inside machine lubricant (grease) cans.

48.(217) September 4, 2013 Defence Seminar: Defence Secretary Gotabaya Rajapaksa stated that the emergence of hard-line groups among the Sinhalese had caused further fragmentation of post-war Sri Lanka. He emphasized that the country was faced with the uphill task of tackling Sinhala hardliners as well as Muslim extremists. He was addressing the Defence Seminar in Colombo on September 3. The Defence Secretary said: "It has been observed that there are some foreign groups that wish to encourage Sri Lanka Muslims to identify themselves more with the global Muslim community, thereby reducing their integration with the rest of the population. It is a known fact that Muslim Fundamentalism is spreading all over the world and in this region. This is a situation that our law enforcement agencies and security forces are concerned about particularly as there have been instances where extremist elements have been in transit in Sri Lanka prior to arrest and handing over to appropriate authorities. The possibility that such extremist elements may try to promote Muslim extremism in Sri Lanka is a cause of concern."

49.(218) September 4, 2013 Media Statement: The Executive Committee of the Bodu Bala Sena hails remarks made by Secretary to the Ministry of Defence Gotabaya Rajapaksa at a Defence Seminar about the threat of Sri Lanka from rising Muslim Extremism as a courageous statement from a national leader and says it was an 'important victory' for the Bodu Bala Sena in its yearlong ideological battle. In a media statement BBS further stresses that it is the nation's good fortune that Muslim extremism has been identified and exposes now before it could bring about another 30 years of war with devastating consequences in 20 years' time.

50.(219) September 05, 2013 Media Conference: In a media conference Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara charges that the Muslims are smugglers of contraceptive pills and drugs into the country. He blames Muslims for destroying the demanded international tea trade. He states that all the Muslim women prisoners are drug offenders whereas the majority of the Sinhala and Tamil women prisoners are there because their crimes are related to family problems. He says that there are over 1,000 Pakistanis and Afghanis living in the Negombo area and requests an investigation as he finds their presence in a Sinhala Buddhist country to be suspicious. He accuses the Muslims for selling "Babul" (a narcotic containing ingredients such as tobacco, areca-nut, clove and betel leaf) to Sinhala students. He warns the All Ceylon Jamiyyathul Ulema that the public will take the law into their own hands if they continue with Halal Certification.

51.(220) September 10, 2013 Press Conference: The Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara announced at a press conference in Kirillapone that an important Muslim minister and a leader of a Muslim organization were having close contact with Yusuf al-Qaradawi who funds Islamic extremist organizations like al-Qaida and Hamaz. He thanks the Secretary of Defence for acting based on the advice of BBS with regard to the Muslim extremism. He further stated that some Muslim extremist groups were creating religious polarization among the people of this country. According to him there are more than ten Muslim extremist organizations functioning in Sri Lanka and they receive funds from Islamic countries. He also mentioned that the leader of Sri Lanka Muslim Congress Rauf Hakeem and Ameen of the Muslim Council of Sri Lanka secretly met Yusuf al-Qaradawi in Qatar, and they are maintaining a close relationship and that Yusuf al-Qaradawi is also trying to fund the Shura (consultation) Council which will control all the Ulama councils. The Rev. Gnanasara stated further that he is ready to reveal information related to these issues when the need arises.

52.(222) September 11, 2013 Media Statement: Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara says that due to the activities of the Muslim extremism sale of drugs have increased in the country. He urges the government to take action against this phenomenon. He says "many Muslims are coming from various Muslim countries but no one here looks into who they are and what their background is". He stated that drugs are brought to Sri Lanka from Afghanistan and Pakistan and are destroying the Sinhala and Tamil races.

53.(223) September 11, 2013 Media Conference: Jathika Hel Urumaya (JHU) Leader Rev. Omalpe Sobitha commended the Defence Secretary's recent speech highlighting the existence of Muslim Extremism in Sri Lanka. He criticized Muslim ministers Rauf Hakeem and Rishard Bathiudeen for asking in Parliament for further clarifications about the speech and asked if they either defended these elements of extremism or feared that the defence secretary's statement would lead to the revelation of hitherto hidden information. The Rev. Omalpe went on to state that the political activities of Muslim leaders who worked closely with the LTTE have not been forgotten by the people, that the people do not need to be reminded of the fact that Muslim leaders sent wreaths to LTTE deputy head Tamil Chelvam's funeral, and that they took measures to topple the government at crucial times during the war with the LTTE. The thero further stated that there was Islamic extremism spreading all over the world disturbing the peaceful existence of people.

54.(226) September 15, 2013 Press Statement: The Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) threatened to resume its campaign against the 'Halal certification' process on the basis that the Government had failed to keep to its promises on this issue. Bodu Bala Sena Secretary stated that he hoped to meet Defence Secretary Gotabaya Rajapakse soon and thereafter would take a decision on the re-launch of the campaign against the Halal certification process. He further stated that Bodu Bala Sena intended to start a fast-unto-death campaign in Kandy at the end of September. It was in Kandy that BBS stopped the campaign against Halal certification after assurances from the Government.

55.(232) September 19, 2013 Media Conference: Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnānasara says in a press conference held in the Buddhist Centre, Kirillapone that the headquarters of the Islamic Wahabi and Salafi movements operate in the east to spread the philosophy of Yusuf al-Qaradawi. He stated that he plans to destroy the Muslim extremism that is spreading in the East and that very soon the BBS will enter Akkaraipattu and Tirukkovil area at the request of the people. He said that he plans to bring all the Buddhist movements together under a two year plan and fight against Muslim extremism. He also warned that everyone will be affected if the youth attracted by the Wahabi and Salafi ideologies start fighting among themselves.

56.(233) September 19, 2013 Press Release: Brigadier Ruwan Wanigasooriya sent an email to media personnel with the subject line 'We are not alone in the current dialogue'. Contained in email was an article that appeared in the UK based Independent newspaper about the ongoing debate in Britain about the Muslim dress code. The article relates to race relations in the UK after a judge asked a veiled woman to remove her burqa in order to give evidence at a trial. The "current dialogue" in Sri Lanka with regards to the Muslim dress is led openly by the anti-Muslim Bodu Bala Sena and other hard line organizations and is seen as part of the groups' on-going campaign of intolerance against the country's Muslim minority community.

57.(234) September 22, 2013 Twitter Message: Bodu Bala Sena in its twitter message immediately after the Northern Provincial Council election results were out, conveys the need to finish off with Muslims first as they are the real threat and then deal with Tamil National Alliance. It states that the Sinhalese Buddhists must now realize why it (the BBS) opposed Northern Provincial Council Elections. The message further says that 2015 will be the year of Buddhists not for Muslims. (Sinhalese Buddhists must now realized why we opposed NWP Elections. This is absurd how they (TNA) want to rule our land on their own. But still we want to finish off with Muslims first as they are our real threat. Remember, 2015 will be year of Buddhists not for Muslims.

58.(242) October 15, 2013: The National Organizer of the Bodu Bala Sena (BBS), Rev. Vitharandeniya Nanda, says the Halal struggle that was deflected and halted, will resume on 22 October. Though the Defence Secretary and the Mahanayaka Theras had intervened and stated that the dispute would be resolved, no measures had been taken so far in this regard, while the BBS had become a victim of deceit, the monk said. He also said a motorcade will start from Colombo and proceed to the Dalada Maligawa in Kandy on 22 October and after start paying homage to the Maligawa, action will be initiated to boycott products labeled as Halal.

59.(246) October 20, 2013: Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara of the Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) alleged that the controversial 'Halal' logo was once again being printed on certain products and released to the market and accused the All Ceylon Jamiyyathul Ulama (ACJU) of going back on its earlier promise to ensure that no new products were released to the market with the logo. Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara claims that new products released to the market also carry the Halal logo. Thus the BBS will once again take up its fight against the Halal issue. However the ACJU official commented that after discussions it was decided that the Halal logo was optional and it was up to the companies to decide if their products should carry the Halal logo.

60.(248) October 22, 2013: The Bodu Bala Sena monks led group re-launches its anti-Halal campaign with a motorcade that left Colombo for Kandy on the morning of the 22nd of October. A special religious ceremony was held before the Sacred Temple of the Tooth in Kandy, to invoke blessings for the campaign. The BBS motorcade departed for Kandy from the Buddhist Centre in Kirulapone. The contingent from Colombo was joined by a number of vehicles at Ambepussa and Kegalle. They held a public rally at Kegalle, chanted anti-minority slogans and made hate speeches against the Muslim community, before heading off to Kandy. Kegalle is home to a significant Muslim population. The BBS claims that thousands of people and hundreds of vehicles joined and that the campaign was successful. (Ref. No.91)

61.(249) October 22, 2013: The Bodu Bala Sena believes its anti-Halal agitation is far more important than taking up the Government's move to create casino zones in the capital Colombo, the group's Chief Executive Officer Dilantha Withanage tells the media. Withanage also criticized the letter released by Governor of the Western Province Alavi Moulana requesting all the heads of the Local Governments in the province to cooperate and assist with the annual Hajj cattle sacrifice (qurban). He pointed to the fact that the letter was written on a letterhead that features the Dhamma Chakra, a Buddhist symbol.

62.(250) October 23, 2013: Dilantha Withanage the CEO of Bodu Bala Sena says that the BBS as declared the oncoming year starting from October 23rd as the "Anti-Halal year". The members of the BBS have made vows yesterday (October 22) before the sacred tooth relic that they are going to fight with their lives against the spreading of the Halal concept.

63.(251) October 25, 2013: Who gave authority to All Ceylon Jamiyyathul Ulama (ACJU) to issue Halal certificate, who are these Ulama, asked Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara of the Bodu Bala Sena. According to the report featured in the Tamil language Virakesari Newspaper Rev. Gnanasara vowed to fight continuously if the ACJU doesn't completely withdraw Halal certification. He blamed the ACJU for cheating some Buddhist monks and feeding Halal food to Sinhala Buddhists. Sri Lanka is a Buddhist country, they cannot cheat us always, he stated. Our motorcade protest to Kandy which was meant to raise awareness among the Sinhalese was a success, the Rev. Monk stated.

64.(252) October 30, 2013: We also have a right to boycott what is certified as Halal, Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara says in an interview with Ceylon Today. He further says that the Halal issue has divided society and many people felt hurt, directly or indirectly. The Halal process is a part of the Sharia Law, which is not a part of the legal system of this country, he stated. He goes on to say that the Muslims in Akurana speak the Arabic language, but the Sri Lankan Muslims do not traditionally speak Arabic. He suspects that later the Muslims will want the Arabic language also recognized as an official language. The Halal issue is like a monster and it is more serious than casinos, he said, and vowed to continue the fight against the Halal certification.

65.(256) November 06, 2013 Kirillapone, Media Conference: the General Secretary of Bodu Bala Sena, Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara said at a press conference that they protested against both Halal and casinos but they consider Halal a greater threat. He said, Halal makes divisions within the society and it affects the country in more serious ways than the casinos. Rev. Ganansara wants Halal to be banned immediately. During the Tsunami Sinhalese gave food packs to Muslims and no one was bothered about Halal or Haram, he stated. According to him Halal is a myth created by the Jamiyyathul Ulama. "Recently we organized a motorcade to oppose the Halal. We met with the Chamber of Commerce and they assured us that they would find a reasonable solution. If there is no proper response from the Chamber we will go to court to find a solution" he said.

- 66.(261) November 21, 2013 Press Release: the Jathika Hela Urumaya (JHU) spokesman accuses in his press statement that a Sri Lanka Muslim Congress politician was behind the tense situation in Ninthvur. He alleges that the SLMC Eastern Provincial Council Politician gave leadership to the 36 hours protest, which was finally dispersed by the anti-riot squad.
- 67.(262) November 25, 2013: Minister Champika Ranawaka of Jathika Hela Urumaya in an interview to Daily Mirror tells the Muslims not to create social segregation the way Probakharan of LTTE did. The way the Muslims dress, eat and act are the reasons for their segregation, he stressed. He says that no Muslim leaders have ever asked their youth to join the forces to defeat the LTTE despite the harassment of LTTE for the Muslim community, but now they are talking about the harassment of Bodu Bala Sena. He also warned the people about the Muslim expansionism and existence of Wahabism in the country.
- 68.(263) November 26, 2013 Twitter Message: Bodu Bala Sena in its Twitter message welcomes the opening of the first Buddhist temple in Israel. The message reads "First Buddhist temple opened in Israel is a blessing for the Buddhist in Sri Lanka to suppress the Muslims".
- 69.(268) December 10, 2013 Media Conference: Bodu Bala Sena has sought to bring to the Government notice that some government institutions headed by Muslims recruit only Muslims for the highest positions and no opportunities were given to the Sinhalese, says the Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasera of the Bodu Bala Sena in media conference held in the Buddhist Centre in Kirullapone. He wants the government too to take responsibilities for the Muslim Fundamentalism that destroys the Sinhala Buddhists and Tamils. He asks the President, Prime Minister, Ministers and their advisors to learn the history and the culture of this country. The Rev. Gnanasara blames the government for not listening to the advice given by the BBS not to allow the extremists and separatists of the Middle East into the country. He goes on blaming the Government advisors whom he thinks are introducing some culture that are not existing anywhere in the world.

He expressed his anger over the letter issued by the governor of the western province to the local governments to allow the cattle slaughtering (sacrifice) during the Hajj festival. Muslim extremism increases and the birth rate of the Muslims are many times more than that of the Buddhists and Tamils in this country, he says.

70.(269) December 12, 2013: Those who slaughter animals cannot call it a sacrifice. There is no place for animal sacrifice and Muslim extremism in a Buddhist country, Bodu Bala Sena announces. In the name of religion animals are slaughtered in this country and the Muslims perform it in their festivals according to their religious belief, which we cannot accept as a sacrifice, Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara says. He further says that sacrifice is the core principle of the Buddhist religion. He states that Sri Lanka is a Sinhala Buddhist country; it should be governed according to Buddhist principles. Rev. Gnanasara says, Muslims should not spread their policies in the areas where the Sinhalese and Tamils live and insult the Buddhist religion. If the Government doesn't take notice of these, we may have to destroy everything, he warns.

71.(274) December 17, 2013: "Completely wipe out hijab from Sri Lanka," the BBS Executive Committee Member Dilantha Withanage says. Speaking of the regulation to obtain the new electronic National Identity Card, he stated that the Muslims should not be permitted to wear their traditional hat or hijab. According to him this country considers the hijab a dress that is used to smuggle drugs and commit robberies, therefore he stressed that it should be wiped out. He stated that he wanted people to stop pointing at the Buddhist monks unnecessarily on every issue and comparing the monks and their saffron robes with others. According to him the Buddhist priests are living peacefully in this country and he warns those who bring the Buddhist monks into every issue that they will have to face dire consequences.

72.(277) December 19, 2013: According to the information from sources within the higher authorities of the Government, Muslims will not be allowed to wear caps and hijabs for the new electronic Identity Cards that will be issued in 2014. This misleading report has no base in mentioning that the Muslim extremists are requesting for caps, hijab and face cover for their ID pictures. The Muslims think that laws preventing Muslim men and women from wearing caps and hijabs (head cover) for their identity card photographs were signs of the government working against the Muslim community of the country.

73.(278) December 20, 2013 Press Conference: Bodu Bala Sena in a media conference at its headquarters stated that the government too is responsible for destroying Sinhala Buddhism and Tamils and spreading Muslim extremism in the country. The organization further claimed that "in a day we can change the government and clean the country, but we follow just path in our fight because we are guided by Buddhism." Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara says to the media that today several try to promote the policies of the Muslim extremism at the cost of insulting Buddhist philosophy. He stated that from food items to every where it is ready to issue Halal certificate for drugs too. Rev. Gnansara says that, today, the birth rates of the Muslims are many times more than that of Buddhists and Tamils and Muslim extremism is spreading. He also says that over thousand families have arrived from the Middle East with an objective of spreading their extremist ideologies among the Muslims in Sri Lanka and make them separatists. He advises the President to understand the situation and rule the country accordingly and not to rule the country to his whims and fancies.

74.(280) December 27, 2013: According to a report in the Virakesari Dilantha Withanage the CEO of the Bodu Bala Sena had stated that the Muslim leadership tries to get the sympathy votes of the Muslim community by showing that the Buddhists are separatists and majority extremists. "When we raise our voice to protect the policies of Sri Lanka and Buddhism this is what the Muslim leadership is showing to their people", says Dilantha Withanage. He had asked everybody to keep in mind that certain important leaders were spreading extremism by keeping the Muslims hostage. According to him Middle East extremism is spreading here as well. He says it will not be allowed to make Sri Lanka a Muslim country by maintaining relationships with Middle East. He stated that the Bodu Bala Sena will never permit Sri Lanka to become a Muslim country. There is an effort by ministers like Rauf Hakeem to amalgamate North and East together and form Tamil Eelam.

75.(282) December 27, 2013 Offensive Cartoon: a cartoon depicting a handcuffed bearded Muslim men wearing a Muslim dress (male salwar kameez) and cap accompanied by a police officer was published in the "Ada" newspaper (Dec 27). The title of the cartoon is "measures are taken to bring the Pakistan drug suspect to Sri Lanka, News." The police officer in the cartoon is asking the suspect "shall we go to look for weapons."

76.(283) December 30, 2013: According to the Daily Mirror, a request has been made by the Indian government in a letter written to Secretary of the Ministry of External Affairs on December 26th, requesting him to enhance security given to Indian diplomatic offices in Sri Lanka to prevent an attack by Muslim extremist groups. India has expressed fears of a possible attack on the Indian mission in Colombo or consular offices in other parts of the country in the aftermath of the execution of Jamaat-e-Islami leader Abdul Qadir Mullah in Bangladesh. Abdul Qadir Mullah was sentenced to death by Bangladesh's International war crimes Tribunal set up to investigate into the crimes committed during the 1971 liberation war. Mullah who was found guilty of the murders of 344 persons and dozens of other war crimes was hung on December 12.

- 4.(29) February 11, 2013, Colombo: A statement by the BBS describes Buddhists as 'the trees on a Rubber Estate' and the minorities as 'the small bushes and creepers in the estate.'
- 5.(32) February 14, 2013, Colombo: Minister Champika Ranawaka requests all food producers to remove the Halal certificate before the Sinhala and Tamil New Year. He says that the ACJU has no legal right to issue certificates and that the ACJU is trying to divide the country through religious lines. He also states that the Halal certificate is violation of rights of the 91% non-Muslim Sri Lankans. He warns that there will be Buddhist uprising if the Halal Certification is not abolished before the Sinhalese New Year in mid-April.
- 6.(35) February 17, 2013, Maharagama: Bodu Bala Sena General Secretary, Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara gives an ultimatum to the government to ban Halal certification by March 31st. More than 1300 Buddhist monks and a gathering of 15,000 people attended the rally. BBS unveiled what it called a "historic" Maharagama Declaration, a 10 point resolution that seeks to impose a ban on halal certified foods, sending Sri Lankan women to the Middle East, mosque-building with Middle Eastern funds and certain birth control methods that they claimed were aimed at stunting the Sinhalese population. The rally calls its members to be an unofficial civilian police force against 'Muslim extremism.' They state that "so-called democrats are destroying the Sinhalese race." He also declared that "Sri Lanka is a Sinhalese country; there is a global principle that minorities must reside in a country in a manner that does not threaten the majority race and its identity."

- 7.(39) February 20, 2013, Colombo: The Bodu Bala Sena compares the All Ceylon Jamiyyathul Ulama to the LTTE, and claims that the organization's actions are like those of the LTTE leader, Prabhakaran.
- 8.(41) February 21, 2013, Colombo: The Bodu Bala Sena complains that Muslims, who return from Makkah after Umrah or Hajj, are spreading Islamic fundamentalism in Sri Lanka. The BBS Secretary says that Halal is a cancer; Jamiyyathul Ulama violates the rights of ordinary Muslims and spreads fundamentalist terrorism.
- 9.(42) February 21, 2013, Dehiwala: Posters appear that call for an anti-Muslim propaganda gathering in Dehiwala (on February 24). It also urges the Sinhalese to be prepared to fight for the country at anytime, anywhere.
- 10.(50) February 27, 2013, Colombo: The BBS General Secretary demands for the Halal Certification to be withdrawn immediately. "We can't allow the Sharia law in this country. There is no need for Muslim Banking, Qadi (Muslim) court system, here."
- 11.(53) February 28, 2013, Colombo: A media brief issued by the Bodu Bala Sena strongly recommends that the government desists from accepting responsibility to certify products as halal, as was suggested by the All Ceylon Jamiyyathul Ulama. The General Secretary of BBS says that the ACJU has very cunningly tried to pass the halal certification off on the government.
- 12.(54) March 01, 2013, Dematagoda: A group of BBS monks raid a Colombo Municipal Council-run slaughterhouse early in the morning, demanding the abattoir be shut down immediately, alleging it was illegally slaughtering calves and distributing inferior quality meat to sellers in Colombo. However the "abattoir" was discovered to be a distribution point only.

- 13.(63) March 04, 2013, Colombo: The Bodu Bala Sena announces that it is the country's "un-official police".
- 14.(73) March 10, 2013, Malabe: The BBS demands the abolishing of Halal certification before 31st March in a public meeting at Malabe. The organization declares that Buddhism needs to be protected from "the fundamentalists" and that Sri Lanka "is a Buddhist country, others can practice their religion within this framework."
- 15.(85) March 15, 2013, Colombo: BBS Secretary announces that they are not trying to create an ethnic issue in the country. He also accuses Ministers like Vasudeva Nanayakkara for speaking on behalf of minorities after entering parliament on Sinhalese Buddhist votes.
- 16.(86) March 15, 2013, Colombo: four Muslim students are forced to remove their headscarf at the Pettah Railway Station by two Sinhalese youths.
- 17.(88) March 16, 2013, Colombo: Bodu Bala Sena President declares that Muslim women wearing black abayas are insulting other ethnic groups.
- 18.(89) March 16, 2013, Colombo: Bodu Bala Sena Secretary urges Sinhalese Buddhist to "reject jobs in the Middle East" and states "are you not ashamed to earn money by giving your women to Arab men?"

- 28.(138) April 07, 2013, Kotikawatta: A mosque was threatened by a group of Sinhalese people calling for its closure. The group said that failure to close will result in them returning with a Buddhist monk, to demolish the place. This mosque is registered with the Colombo Municipal Council.

- 29.(143) April 10, 2013, Colombo: Former Army Commander, General Sarath Fonseka congratulates the Bodu Bala Sena for its successful campaign to withdraw the Halal certification, as it has led to the creation of an atmosphere of peace in the country. Fonseka said that he appreciates the group's attempts to grow peace in the country, but, giving up the fight against 'Halal' is a betrayal. He also said that the BBS should fight against 'Halal' until it is completely wiped out.
- 30.(147) April 13, 2013, Colombo: The mother of a child who was being treated for dengue at Lady Ridgeway Hospital says that she was asked to remove her abaya (cloak) when she visited the hospital to see her child. According to her, the nurse on duty at the Admission desk had asked her to remove her abaya if she wanted to enter the hospital premises.
- 31.(151) May 05, 2013, Colombo: JHU media spokesman declares that "Muslim racists have interfered in the country's general laws. Due to their activities the entire country is faced with a crisis."
- 32.(155) May 14, 2013, Kolonnawa: Meethota Kolonnawa mosque is stoned by unknown people.
- 33.(157) May 24, 2013, Kollupitiya: The monks of Sinhala Ravaya and a gang of goons had entered the Kollupitiya Municipal People's Market and attacked the meat stalls there. They have forcibly taken out the meat and goods that were there and thrown them out.
- 34.(166) June 06, 2013, Colombo: The Bodu Bala Sena urges the government to introduce a national policy on Islamic religious education in the country. The Bodu Bala Sena General Secretary claims Madrasa (Islamic schools) had been established throughout the country to spread Islamism by certain NGOs.

- 35.(173) June 09, 2013, Grandpass: A temporary mosque in the Grandpass area of Colombo is forced to relocate in one month due to an intense protest campaign by the "Ravana Balaya" (Ravana Force). The monks had staged a protest in front of the mosque and disturbed prayer on July 5th.
- 36.(187) July 04, 2013, Grandpass: Buddhist Monks oppose the opening of the newly built mosque. Muslims built this mosque in a new location on the same road, as the earlier one had been earmarked for the expansion of the canal by the Urban Development Authority (UDA). (Ref No.173)
- 37.(189) July 05, 2013, Grandpass: Monks stage a protest in front of the mosque and disturb prayers on July 5th. A temporary mosque in the Grandpass area of Colombo is forced to relocate in one month due to an intense protest campaign by the "Ravana Balaya" (Ravana Force). (Ref. No.187)
- 38.(192) July 09, 2013, Colombo: Ravana Balaya holds a protest outside the Department of Buddhist Affairs demanding the removal of a mosque in Grandpass which the movement alleged was an illegal construction. Ravana Balaya and the Muslim representatives from the Mosque in Grandpass, then settled the dispute and came into an agreement to move the mosque to a suitable location within a month. (Ref. No.189)
- 39.(196) July 16, 2013, Dematagoda: Seven Buddhist monks in robes and 5 civilians set fire to a lorry belonging to a Muslim parked near the Baseline Road at dawn at around 3.40a.m. This lorry arrived there with a government approved license to collect beef from a government abattoir in Dematagoda. Owners of the lorry that transports beef to the stalls at Kotte, Madiwela, Nugegoda, Mirihana, Battaramulla, and Thalawathugoda had duly obtained licenses from the local bodies.

- 40.(197) July 17, 2013, Grandpass: Sinhala Ravaya monks storm a mosque in Grandpass, laying claim that the building was an illegal construction. The mosque was a makeshift space for conducting prayers during the month of Ramadan. The original mosque in the area, which was built in the 1960s, was to be relocated as per Urban Development plans, as 15 feet of the mosque area was required for expanding a canal. As a result, with the approval of the Ministry of Buddha Sasana and Religious Affairs, prayers were conducted in this nearby building on a temporary basis during the Ramadan month. (Ref. No.192)
- 41.(207) August 03, 2013, Attidiya: A group of ten men led by the Chief Prelate of the Bellanwila Rajamaha Viharaya enter the Masjidul Hiba mosque while the devotees are about to break their fast, and threaten them to close down the mosque immediately. The prelate alleges that the Muslims started it as a Madrasa and then converted it into a mosque, saying; "If this mosque is not closed down we will gather people and organize a big protest and take action to close it down." This mosque was registered with the authorities and the papers were shown to the police who visited the mosque at the complaint of the Trustees of the mosque. The police allowed the Trustees to continue the activities.
- 42.(208) August 10, 2013, Grandpass: A Buddhist mob attacks the mosque in Grandpass, leaving at least five people injured. Buddhist and Muslims clashed after the attack, and police imposed a curfew in the area. Several houses were also damaged during the clashes. A Muslim resident of the area said that a mob threw stones at the mosque when worshippers were performing evening prayers. Buddhists monks had reportedly protested on July 5th and 17th against the presence of the mosque but had agreed to allow Muslims to continue praying there until the end of the Islamic fasting month of Ramadan. But area Muslims say Sri Lanka's Religious Affairs Ministry (Ministry of Buddha Sasana and Religious Affairs) had given them permission to continue using the site and had also provided special police security due to the threat of possible attacks. (Ref. No.197)

- 43.(209) August 11, 2013, Kolonnawa: Hand bills are distributed stating that the spread of the Muslim population has led to the destruction of Buddhism. Hence an initiative has to be taken to stop this situation. Two months before it was a collective battle by the Muslims and Sinhalese in Kolonnawa to clear the piled up garbage in that area. The BBS organized a gathering very close to the Jumma Masjid in Kolonnawa during the month of Ramadan, while the Muslims were praying.
- 44.(211) August 12, 2013, Grandpass: The new Grandpass mosque is closed after the attacks. The Sri Lanka Muslim Council said that the Muslims had agreed to move to the older place of worship which the Urban Development Authority had earlier earmarked for demolition as part of the city's development. (Ref. No.208)
- 45.(212) August 12, 2013, Attidiya: Superintendent of Police attached to the Mt. Lavinia Division, and an inspector from Police Headquarters visit the Masjidul Hiba, and asked the mosque's trustees to register the mosque under the Ministry of Buddha Sasana and Religious Affairs and the Divisional Secretariat, within two weeks, if not they might have to close the mosque. (Ref. No.207)
- 46.(241) October 15, 2013, Kotikawatta: A.W.M. Sihan, United National Party Member of the Kotikawatta Pradeshiya Sabha says that Bodu Bala Sena has taken away 11 cattle by force that were brought for the Hajj animal sacrifice (qurban) on 14th mid-night. Out of 11 cattle the Pradeshiya Sabha has given approval for five and the rest were awaiting approval. Sihan also said the cattle traders were also attacked by the Bodu Bala Sena. He further stated that these incidents happened even after the Chief Minister of the Western Province had warned the Pradeshiya Sabha Chairman not to disturb qurban activities.
- 47.(253) October 31, 2013, Colombo: The members of the Bodu Bala Sena raided the Ministry of Buddha Sasana and Religious Affairs in large numbers today and blamed the ministry for not taking action against the unethical conversion in the country. The Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara told the secretary to the Ministry that the Christian and Muslim Fundamentalisms are increasing in the country and the Buddhist and Hindus are brainwashed and forcefully converted to their religions. He stated, the domination of the Muslims and Christians has been increased in the country; particularly the Muslim fundamentalism has become stronger. He queried why the Ministry is not doing anything to stop these developments. He further said that the Muslims have only 600 years history in this country and able to establish 58 Quadi courts around the country, but there is not a single court for the Buddha Sasana and also more than 400 organizations are functioning against Buddhists.

48.(257) November 8, 2013, Colombo: The Registrar General A.M. Gunasekera has instructed all the Muslim Registrars around the country not to register any marriages between foreign Muslims and local Muslims. In his circular the Registrar General elaborates that there is no provision in the Muslim personal law to register foreigners. Therefore do not register any marriage involving foreigners. If both parties are Muslims, their marriage cannot also be registered under the normal marriage law or upcountry marriage law.

49.(265) December 1, 2013, University of Moratuwa: The Moratuwa University says it has banned Muslim students from wearing the face veil (Niqab) owing to security concerns. The Vice Chancellor of the University, Prof. A.K.W. Jayawadena stated that the students were informed that the face veil cannot be worn as there are concerns that unknown elements may enter the university with their faces covered and that could raise a security issue. Fathima Sahar, (not her real name) a first year student at the Faculty of Architecture of the above University is the first victim of the ban. In an article published in the journalism website Groundviews, Sahar claimed that the niqab was previously never an issue for the University of Moratuwa. She was not the first student to wear it. A few years ago the University had its first niqabi enroll and complete her studies and graduated without hindrance. One other student who is affected by this decision started wearing it in September 2011. She has been banned from wearing the niqab after two years of wearing it in university. Sahar wonders why this is happening now. The Higher Education Ministry has said that there is no rule or regulations that prevent female Muslim students from covering their faces.

50.(270) December 13, 2013, Kohuwala, Dehiwala: The Dehiwala Police orders the Mosque administration of the Dharus Safiee Mosque at Kadawatha Road in Kohuwala to stop conducting prayers and issuing the call to prayer five times a day. This mosque has been functioning for the last three years with the approval of the Department of the Muslim Religious and Cultural Affairs and the Wakf Board. The Mt. Lavinia Divisional Superintendent of Police at a meeting in his office on December 11 requested the Trustees of the Mosque to stop all activities until the Trustees obtain approval from the Ministry of Buddha Sasana and Religious Affairs.

51.(271) December 13, 2013, Kohuwala, Dehiwala: A handbill has been circulated in the Kalubowila area stating that the activities of the Muslims of the area constitute a "public nuisance." It further says that there will be a meeting on December 15 at the Sunantharama temple under the leadership of the General Secretary of Sinhala Ravaya, Rev. Akmeemana Dayarathna to discuss the problem.

52.(272) December 15, 2013, Attidiya, Dehiwala: Police officers visited Attidiya Masjid Ul Hiba (Mosque), Dehiwala and order the mosques Trustees to stop prayers services. This mosque has been facing threats since the Ramadan fasting period and the residents of the area believe that the Buddhist monk from the majority community works behind such activities.(Ref.No.212)

53.(273) December 15, 2013, Dehiwala: Police Officers entered the Dharul Arkam Mosque in Dehiwala and ordered the Mosque trustees to stop prayers and the call to prayer five times a day. The Muslims of the area expressed fear over such activities of the Police. It is the Buddhist monk and some Buddhist people of the area who complained to the police about the Mosques being unauthorized, which led the police to take such action, the Muslims of the area alleged. Mosques come under the Wakuf Board, which has been established according to the law passed in the parliament and police cannot stop the activities of Mosques, says Minister Rishard Bathiudeen who visited the Mosques. "Why are the police targeting places of warship instead of the countless unauthorized buildings in the country?" people ask.

54.(275) December 17, 2013, Kohuwala, Dehiwala: The Masjidul As Shafiee at Kadawatha Road in Kohuwala was stoned on the night of 16th December 2013. On 15th December 2013 the trustees of the Mosque were ordered by the Kohuwala police to stop all religious activities including issuing the call to prayer and conducting prayers on the premises. The police had arrived promptly to provide security, sources told.

55.(281) December 27, Maligawatte, Colombo 10: Several Muslims in the Maligawatte area staged an agitation campaign against an allegedly illegal transfer of lands belonging to the Muslim burial ground in Maligawatte. The protestors claim that the 19 perch block of land was transferred with the help of governing party members in the area to a private company. They want the construction work on the site stopped and the land returned, otherwise the protests will continue until the authorities intervene and return the land belonging to the burial ground, to the mosque and the people, they said.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN GAMPAHA DISTRICT

- 1.(60) March 03, 2013, Mahara: The 60 year old Mahara mosque was defaced with images of pigs and anti-Muslim hate slogans.
- 2.(61) March 03, 2013, Mahara: The superintendent of the Mahara prison (located close to the local mosque), orders the mosque administration to close the mosque down.
- 3.(62) March 03, 2013, Malwana: Anti-Muslim posters appear.
- 4.(64) March 05, 2013, Mahara: A government minister orders the removal of a mosque in Mahara.
- 5.(127) March 31, 2013, Negombo: A group of Muslim men taking part in religious activities is attacked. The attacker, a Sinhalese three-wheeler driver fled the scene immediately. Afterwards, a complaint was made at Kochchikade Police and the person was arrested.
- 6.(128) April 01, 2013, Kelaniya: The Secretary of the BBS claims that 'Wahabism' should be eradicated before it swallows the country. He also declares that the Fashion Bug Pepiliyana incident was orchestrated by Muslim Fundamentalists and that the politicians who do not promote the best interests of the Sinhalese community should be chased out from temples.
- 7.(139) April 07, 2013, Negombo: Negombo Municipal Council ruling party member Dayal Nilanga makes a racist speech during a council session, claiming that: "70% of Sinhala Buddhist and Sinhala Christian are living in Sri Lanka. Muslims came as traders to Sri Lanka," causing the Muslim members of the council to oppose his speech.
- 8.(171) June 09, 2013, Katunayake: Bodu Bala Sena General Secretary announces that Muslim doctors are working against the Sinhalese Buddhist community and that therefore, the Sinhalese should totally reject being treated by Muslim doctors.

9.(186) July 01, 2013, Katunayake: BBS Secretary Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara warns the Sinhalese not to take contraceptive pills. According to him, Muslims in Sri Lanka are increasing their numbers and covertly developing in every field including business. He further states that the Muslims are trying to lead the country towards Islamic fundamentalism; therefore Sinhalese should not use contraceptive pills. He also appeals to boycott Muslim businesses and reject Muslim doctors. The Rev. Gnanasara also states that 400 fundamental religious organizations are operating in Sri Lanka, among which 10 are Muslim fundamental groups. The most affected are the Buddhists and Catholics. In order to safeguard the country from Muslim & Christian extremists, traditional Catholics should join hands with the BBS. People who can safeguard this right should be elected at the parliament. If not, in 10 years' time this country will face another war.

10.(254) November 04, 2013, Dompe: Dompe Pradeshiya Saba decided to close all beef stalls in the Dompe electorate. The proposal to close the beef stalls was brought by Member of UPFA Aminda Rajapaksa. Nine voted for the closure while five voted against it. The butchers and the owners of the beef stalls who are Muslims lose their business, while the people who want to eat beef are deprived.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN KALUTARA DISTRICT

- 1.(13) January 23, 2013, Beruwala: A group of monks damage a Muslim restaurant in Beruwala.
- 2.(56) March 02, 2013, Beruwala: A group of around 120 Sinhalese people try to stop a halal slaughtering in the town. They photograph the butchers slaughtering cattle.
- 3.(57) March 02, 2013, Beruwala & Aluthgama: Anti-Muslim and anti-Halal posters appear.
- 4.(65) March 05, 2013, Panadura: A Panadura - Eluvila Bauddhaloka School principal orders Muslim students to worship teachers and not to wear their hijab.
- 5.(103) March 24, 2013, Panadura: The Bodu Bala Sena urges the Sinhalese to "protect the nation and not let other races or religions to take over". The monk also urged Sinhalese families to have at least 5-6 children so that the Sinhalese Buddhist population grows in order to protect the Sinhala race and Buddhism in Sri Lanka. The country should be ready to rally against Christian and Muslim extremist groups operating in the country. BBS General Secretary states: "We have now become the police of this nation. We must help the police arrest people bringing down heroin in Sri Lanka who are mostly Muslims". He also claims that the Ministry of Defence had assured the group that the Halal issue will be resolved and warns that if the ACJU goes against its commitments to the Ministry of Defence and the Buddhist clergy then BBS will take appropriate action.
- 6.(104) March 24, 2013, Panadura: The Bodu Bala Sena Secretary demands that the High Commissioner for Sri Lanka in Singapore, Mrs. Ferial Ashroff, be terminated immediately and that she be recalled from Singapore. He states that the Bodu Bala Sena had received reliable information from Singapore that Mrs. Ashroff was working against the interests of Sinhalese Buddhists.

- 7.(113) March 28, 2013, Maggona: The heads of two pigs are displayed on Muslim women's property, which are located close to the Maggona Main Road.
- 8.(145) April 12, 2013, Bulathsinhala: JHU parliamentarian Rev. Athuraliye Rathna states that sending women to the Middle East for employment is the main cause of problems for families in Sri Lanka and that the "Cultural encroachment of Muslim terrorists has still not ended".
- 9.(146) April 12, 2013, Bulathsinhala: JHU leader Rev. Omalpe Sobitha addresses a public gathering, speaking against Islam and its customs, in particular stating that the entire Halal process should be banned; it is not possible to produce Halal and non Halal products in the same factory. He adds that according to Buddhism, Muslim's circumcision is also bad and vulgar.
- 10.(184) June 25, 2013, Kalutara: Concurrently with the protest march against cattle slaughter in Hambantota, a mob including the BBS monks gather near a Mosque in Kalutara, provoking Muslims and creating tension in the centre of the town.
- 11.(203) July 29, 2013, Wadduwa: Unidentified people set fire to a beef stall in the public market owned by a Muslim, at around 5a.m. destroyed the equipment and the stall. A poster was found in the premises saying that you will be killed if you do not stop selling beef hereafter.
- 12.(229) September 16, 2013, Viyangala, Agalawatta: More than ten Buddhist Monks surrounded the Viyangala abattoir in the Agalawatta Pradeshiya Sabha on the morning of September 16th. There was no slaughtering of any cattle but the butchers and others started calling the Colombo politicians for help. On hearing of the incident the local police rushed to the scene and brought the situation under control. Although the neighbouring Mattugama Pradeshiya Sabha has banned cattle slaughtering in its jurisdiction such activities remained legal within the Agalawatta Pradeshiya Sabha. The local parliamentarian who arrived there at that time has told the butchers that he is with them and to continue their business. No one has rights to interrupt a legally functioning business, the politician stated.

- 13.(230) September 17, 2013, Bulathsinhala, Egaloya: A large gathering of Buddhist Monks, patrons and donors to the local temple held a protest walk on 16th against the burning of the Paramitha Vishwa Samadhi Dharmayathanaya situated in Egaloya, Bulathsinhala. According to the National organizer of the Maha Sanga Sabha Ven Pahiyangala Ananda Sagara, a group had thrown a party to celebrate the burning of the Dharmayathanaya. President of the Sinhala Ravaya Rev. Akmeemana Dayaratna says "today Muslim mosques are being constructed, praying halls are being constructed, restaurants and brothels are being constructed but nobody takes steps to burn them, yet there are groups to burn the Buddhist Temples". He urged the authorities to find the people responsible for the incident.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN KANDY DISTRICT

- 1.(21) February 01, 2013, Kandy: Slogans appeared on the walls of mosques and surrounding areas stating: "this is a Sinhalese country, live carefully." Also, a road sign which read: "Siddhi Lebbe Mawatha" is changed to "Vidyarthi Mawatha" overnight.
- 2.(31) February 14, 2013, Kandy: The "Keppattipola Parapura" gang distributes "anti-halal, anti-Muslim" hand outs that say: "you have full freedom to oppose the Halal process." It advises the Sinhalese not to consume certain product until the Halal logo is removed from its packaging.
- 3.(45) February 21, 2013, Muruthalawa: Posters against Muslims appear saying: Stop Muslimization in Muruthalawa Town. We Sinhalese don't want Muslims or Halal.
- 4.(69) March 06, 2013, Deltota: The District Medical Officer (DMO) of the Deltota District Hospital compels the Muslim women who come for treatment to remove their headscarves.
- 5.(72) March 08, 2013, Kandy: A nurse attached to the Kandy Teaching Hospital insists that a Muslim woman accompanying a patient to a ward, remove her Abaya and headscarf.
- 6.(79) March 12, 2013, Kandy: Posters by "Sinhala Voice" appear in Kandy, saying the Sinhalese people should buy goods from Sinhalese shops only for the coming New Year. They went on to say that Sinhalese business people should only respect Sinhalese customers.
- 7.(82) March 14, 2013, Bogodawatta: An offensive epithet against "Allah" is scrawled on a closed shop door. (This type of activity is now a common occurrence).

- 8.(84) March 14, 2013, Kandy: Posters appear in Kandy against Muslims ("don't go to Muslim shops!" and other hurtful messages). The posters warn that Kandy cannot be changed into a Muslim town, like Akurana was.
- 9.(90) March 16, 2013, Suduhampola: Kandy city and its environs are saturated with posters announcing the Bodu Bala Sena rally. Leaflets have also been distributed in Sinhalese houses, business establishments and Buddhist places of worship and schools. Letters have been sent by post. Sinhalese Buddhists are asked to dress in all-white, creating a "white sea" in Kandy on Sunday. Additionally, there are fresh posters stirring racist sentiment, for example "Remove slaughterhouse from the Kandy town", "Kandy will not be allowed to be turned into another Akuran" and "Don't purchase things from Muslim shops" creating a state of fear among the Muslim people of the area. Posters also appear thanking the Kandy mayor Mahendra Ratwatte for closing the animal slaughterhouse in Kandy. This abattoir was in existence for 148 years.
- 10.(91) March 17, 2013, Kandy: The Bodu Bala Sena holds a massive rally to announce their "victory" against Halal certification. Bodu Bala Sena General Secretary claims the Defence Secretary had provide an assurance that the Halal logo would be withdrawn in the country and a special police unit would be set up to carry out inspections in shops around the country that might be still carrying Halal products. Another Buddhist monk claims that according to the Qur'an, Muslims are supposed to spit 3 times in the food if they are serving it to non-Muslims.
- 11.(94) March 17, 2013, Kandy: The Bodu Bala Sena announces that their next aim is to "free" Kurugala from Muslims. Muslims should leave "Kurugala" (Jailani) before 31st April and that this year the Vesak festival will be celebrated in Kurugala.
- 12.(101) March 21, 2013, Poojapitya: A Sinhalese man snatches the cap off of a Moulavi's head, and tramples it.

- 13.(107) March 25, 2013, Gampola: In Gampola town, CCTV Camera revealed anti-Sinhalese posters were put up by Buddhist extremists trying to create disturbance, and not Muslims.
- 14.(112) March 27, 2013, Peradeniya: A Muslim woman was forced to remove her abaya at ward No.3 in the Peradeniya teaching hospital.
- 15.(148) April 16, 2013, Gampola: A Muslim-owned textile store 'The Lucky Emporium', was attacked in broad daylight by a gang numbering about a dozen. The glass panes of the shop as well as the showcases were broken, and debris of broken glass remained strewn inside and outside the premises in the immediate aftermath of the attack.
- 16.(168) June 10, 2013, Peradeniya: Jathika Hela Urumaya (JHU) protests against two Muslim Medical interns at Peradeniya Hospital, accusing them of forcing the Sinhalese to undertake family planning.
- 17.(243) October 16, 2013, Kandy: Swarnamali Vidyalaya in Kandy closed school on the 15th of October due to a teachers development program and made up for this day by opening school on the 16th of October, on the day the Haj festival was celebrated by Muslims. Some of the staff and parents had protested against the school functioning on Haj festival day. Principal of the school stated that the school functioning on the 16th was with the consent of the Zonal Education Director.
- 18.(284) December 31, 2013, Poojapitiya: Mullegama Masjithul Falah Mosque at Ambatenna in the Poojapitiya are came under sudden attack by an unidentified group. A group of people who arrived in a vehicle around 10p.m. have pelted stones and caused heavy damage to the glass panes of the Mosque, the shocked area residents say. The attackers have entered the mosque by breaking the doors and caused further damage to the building as well. Sinhala and Muslim communities live peacefully in this village. Buddhist clergies and area politicians who visited the site immediately are stunned over the attack.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN MATALE DISTRICT

- 1.(158) May 27, 2013, Dambulla: Matale District Secretary claims that there are no Mosques in Dambulla town. "There is no need to talk about it."
- 2.(159) May 28, 2013, Padeniya: Padeniya Muslims are ordered by the Matale District Secretary to move from their homes after their area is declared 'sacred', without any compensation or alternative arrangements.
- 3.(224) September 12, 2013, Dambulla: Mr. Ahamed Lebbe, the president of the Dambulla Jummah Mosque trustee board revealed to Thinakural the plan of the authorities to expedite the process of acquiring the mosque land. According to mr. Lebbe the Road Development Authorities and Surveyors from Matale entered the Mosque premises at 11.30a.m. on September 11 and surveyed unit 2.20p.m. and demarcated the area that is to come under the acquisition plan. The trustee of the Mosque fear that according to the new plan the Mosque will be removed from the present location. They also blamed the Muslim politicians for not doing much to save the Mosque. (Ref. No.158)
- 4.(235) September 27, 2013, Dambulla: The residents (Hindus and Muslims) of Dambulla Buddhist sacred area were issued letters by the Urban Development Authority (UDA) on 27 September and were asked to leave the area by the end of September. They were promised alternate lands on Kandalama Road, in the Polwatte area. Some Muslim families living on this land which is deemed to be a sacred area had lived here for over 100 years. (Ref. No.224)
- 5.(236) October 2, 2013, Dambulla: Hindus and Muslims evicted from Dambulla on the grounds that they were occupying land sacred to the Buddhists, say that they are still waiting for alternative accommodation as promised by Prime Minister D.M. Jayaratne during his visit to the area prior to the recently concluded Provincial Council

Elections. Prime Minister Jayaratne had visited the place and assured the Chief Priest of the Hindus Temple and the evicted Muslims from their lands more than a year before, that they would be resettled in Polwatte, Dambulla. (Ref. No.235)

- 6.(247) October 21, 2013, Dambulla: S.Y.M. Saleem, Member of the Board of Trustees of Dambulla Mosque told Sudaroli Newspaper that around 10.30p.m. mob had thrown pig meat into the mosque compound and lit crackers. Even though the Mosque is provided police protection such activities continue to take place, he stated. According to Mr.Saleem this is the second such incident in recent days. He also mentioned pig's blood has been sprayed on the Mosque premises recently. As a result, the Muslim residents of the area live in fear. (Ref. No.236)

- 6.(46) February 22, 2013, Hirumbura: Stones were thrown at the Hirumbura Mohideen Jumma Mosque early in the morning; its windows shattered, stones strewn all over the mosque floor.
- 7.(106) March 25, 2013, Galle: At an anti-Muslim rally organized by the Sinhala Ravaya, the organization's president, Rev. Akmeemana Dayaratne, states that the All Ceylon Jamiyyathul Ulama members should be arrested for extortion.
- 8.(117) March 29, 2013, Elpitiya: The Bodu Bala Sena approached the legal owners of the 13 Muslim establishments in Elpitiya and directed them not to extend their leases, even though the Muslim shop owners have been paying their rent dutifully to their Sinhalese landlords, who normally renew the legal agreements every year. Now, however, the Sinhala landlords are demanding that the Muslim businessmen vacate their shops, upon making the last rent payment for the year. Elpitiya will then be "liberated" according to BBS.

- 9.(167) June 08, 2013, Karapitiya: Urban Development Authority (UDA) official acting on the direct orders of the Secretary to the Ministry of Defence and Urban Development, Secretary Gotabaya Rajapaksa, are accompanied by military personnel to inform the Muslim resident families that the lands where they have been living for decades and where their legally owned homes were built on have been earmarked for Urgent Urban construction purpose and that they should vacate their homes in 72 hours. The land will be used to enhance and develop roads adjacent to the hospital and bus depot and also to expand the bus depot.
- 10.(174) June 12, 2013, Karapitiya: Urban Development Authority (UDA) officials and building contractors in-charge of the demolition & reconstruction project arrive with the police and bulldozers, telling the residents (Muslims) that their time is up and that they should leave within three hours with their belongings. After failing to move the protesting residents, they eventually leave the area, verbally abusing and threatening the residents as they do so, saying they would be back soon to continue the demolition. Muslims felt especially targeted in this instance since it was only Muslims and not Sinhala families who were also part of the community and who lived in the vicinity who were asked to move.
- 11.(231) September 18, 2013, Hirimpura: Muslims of the Joseph Estate in Hirimpura were attacked on September 13th around 1.30p.m. by a group of people carrying weapons including iron-rods and swords. The mob was using provocative language for Muslims to retaliate, but Muslim neither responded nor came out of their houses instead they called the police. Then the angry mob damaged the houses. The tense situation prevailed until the police came to the scene by 2.30a.m. and brought the situation under control. According to the newspaper the Muslim people of the area continue to live in fear and asked the police to provide security.

12.(240) October 12, 2013, Kurundugahahethekma, Elpitiya: Rev. Akmeemana Dayarathna of Sinhala Ravaya, a group of around 1,000 residents of the area, as well as members of the Sinhala Ravaya staged a protest against a Muslim businessman who was to open a gold jewellery shop in the town. The Muslim businessman had leased the shop from a Sinhalese businessman, paying Rs.500,000. Minister of Resettlement, Mr. Gunaratne Weerakoon intervened and has ordered the Sinhala Ravaya, out from Kurundugahahethekma. The monk had allegedly abused the minister in lewd language when the later had pleaded with the prelate not to whip up racial disharmony. The incident was triggered off by the Chairman of the Kurundugahahethekma Pradeshiya Sabha, Gamini Amarawansa, who had joined the procession and said, "We have won today" implying that the battle to get the Muslim businessman out of the vicinity had succeeded. The Minister had lodged a complaint with the Elpitiya Police.

13.(276) December 18, 2013, Kurandaga: A Muslim owned jewellery shop in Kurandaga in Karandeniya electorate in the Galle District was burnt late last night by an unidentified gang.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN MATARA DISTRICT

- 1.(26) February 09, 2013, Gandara: The Matara Gandara Muslim mosque is attacked and stoned at midnight by a gang, shouting and cursing Muslims as they did so.
- 2.(48) February 26, 2013, Horagoda-Akuressa: A drunken Sinhalese youth and two friends threaten and damage a small shop run by widowed Muslim women four days after starting it. An elderly gentlemen who came to negotiate was slapped by the youth.
- 3.(49) February 27, 2013, Matara: While on the way to an institution for a computer course, 3 Muslim school girls are attacked by Sinhalese youths, who shout at them to stop wearing their head-scarf and abhayas.
- 4.(96) March 18, 2013, Matara: A group called 'Matara Sinhalayo' puts up posters on the day of the opening of the Matara branch of Fashion Bug - "If you are a Sinhalese don't enter the shady-abode Fashion Bug, which digs the graves of the Sinhalese race".
- 5.(123) March 31, 2013, Weligama: A leaflet is circulated in the Weligama area against Muslims. It mentions the details of businesses owned by Muslims of the area and strictly warns not to purchase goods from those businesses.
- 6.(134) April 03, 2013, Weligama: Bodu Bala Sena conducts a meeting in the Weligama town against Muslims.
- 7.(144) April 10, 2013, Weligama: Bodu Bala Sena enters Weligama and stages a public rally near the Pradeshiya Sabha Office. The walls in Weligama and its environs are plastered with red and white posters announcing the Bodu Bala Sena rally. Widespread distribution of a leaflet in Sinhala targeting the community upsets the Muslims.

8(258) November 08, 2013, Issadeen Town, Matara: The Ministry of Buddha Sasana and Religious Affairs cancelled the registration of the Issadeen Masjid Al-Taqlwa (Mosque). The director of the above ministry informed the Wakf Board about the cancellation of the registration. In his letter he points out that the chief monk of the Issadeen Twon Ashokarama Temple Rev. Dr. Kanathakoda Satharaja, registrar of the Matara Sasana, and the chief inspector of Matara claim that the Mosque is a threat to local peace as there are three mosques in the 1.5sq.km. area where a large number of Buddhists live.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN AMPARA DISTRICT

- 1.(44) February 21, 2013, Kalmunai: In Carmal Fathima School in Kalmunai, a group of teachers ask a newly appointed Muslim teacher to remove her head-scarf.
- 2.(80) March 12, 2013, Maha Oya: Leaflets are issued against the Muslims and to remove Muslims from "Maha Oya". The leaflets state: "Maha Oya is an ancient town that belongs to us. Now the Muslims are trying to by property and dominate it. Muslims employ Sinhalese girls in their shops and rape them and drug them so that they cannot have children. We have to chase the Muslims away and protect our town!"
- 3.(137) April 05, 2013, Pottuvil: JHU media spokesman Nishantha Warnasinghe issues a notice blaming Muslim saboteurs for the sudden fire which had broken out at the "Muhudu Maha" Viharaya in Pottuvil.
- 4.(170) June 11, 2013, Ampara: Bodu Bala Sena General Secretary vows to take revenge on MP Harees for requesting the President's intervention in shifting the venue of their first meeting in the East from Kalmunai to Ampara.
- 5.(260) November 20, 2013, Ninthavur: Minister Vasudeva Nanayakkara requested a presidential intervention to settle the Ninthavur unrest. He says the area became tense after a gang of thieves, who were apprehended and handed over to the police, were released without any action. It appears that the thieves were members of the Special Task Force (Police). They had burgled houses in this area for some time. One day the people remained alert and apprehended them and handed them over to the police. Ninthavur is a Muslim village.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN BATTICALOA DISTRICT

- 1.(36) February 17, 2013, Kattankudi: Kattankudi police stops a community awareness programme organized by the Sri Lanka Thowheed Jamath, despite the fact that the organizers had obtained the proper permission from the relevant authorities to hold the event.
- 2.(131) April 02, 2013, Batticaloa: Some notices intending to persuade Tamil people to participate in a hartal against Muslims are distributed in the Batticaloa District via post. The notice mentions the following issue; a) Halal concept can affect people's unity and have a great impact on children, b) Tamil people from the East were massacred by Muslims, c) Intention of threatening Muslims, and d) The hartal (boycott) carried out by Muslims on 23rd March is proof of the division between Muslims and Tamils.
- 3.(141) April 08, 2013, Batticaloa: Leaflets are distributed in Valaichchenai, Batticaloa District, stating that "Muslim businessmen should leave the Tamil's Mother Land before April 08th". These leaflets are issued by "Dravidan Sena."
- 4.(180) June, 2013, Manmunai South-Eruvilpattu AGA Division: The Tamil Makkal Viduthalai Puligal (TMVP), led by former Eastern Province Chief Minister and current Provincial Councilor and Advisor to the President, Sivanesathurai Chandrakanthan (alias Pillaiyan), has been engaging in anti-Muslim propaganda in a bid to counter the popularity of the Tamil National Alliance (TNA), who is in favour of building close relations between Tamils and Muslims in the province. Several posters and leaflets attacking Muslims have been issued. Some leaflets have asked Tamils not to patronize Muslim businesses. Muslims have also been threatened to vacate their dwellings in areas with a mixed Tamil-Muslim population and go back to traditional Muslim enclaves such as Eravur and Kattankudi.

- 5.(181) June 20, 2013, Urukaamam: A provision store-cum-eatery owned and run by Mr. Seeni Muhammadu Fareed is burnt down by a gang suspected to be the anti-Muslim outfit calling itself 'Dravida Senai' or Dravdian Army, regarded as a front of the TMVP.
- 6.(206) July 30, 2013, Oddamavadi: A Buddha statue is placed on a table in the middle of a school playground in Pirainthuraichchenai Ashar Vidyalayam, a Muslim School in the Muslim dominated town of Oddamavadi in Valaichchenai. The playground is located close to Buddha Jayanthi Vihara (temple). The head of the Buddhist temple had attempted to seize the playground from the school in 2010.
- 7.(239) October 12, 2013, Valaichchenai: A Buddha statue was planted in a private land at Kumburumodai Division on Pasikuda Road, Valaichchenai that belongs to a retired Muslim teacher Hayathu Muhamadu Muhamadu Ibrahim on 4th October, without prior consent of the owner. However this statue was removed from the place on 11th October. According to newspaper reports the same statue had been placed for a few days and then removed from several places in the area, allegedly by the Buddhist Monk attached to the Valaichchenai Sri Buddha Jayanthi Temple.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN TRINCOMALEE DISTRICT

- 1.(188) July 4, 2013, Nilaveli: Tamil parents and children of Nilaveli Tamil Vidyalayam protest against Muslim children wearing Hijab. The school administration forbade the Muslim children wearing the Hijab from entering the School premises.
- 2.(199) July 21, 2013, Thoppur: Armed forces try to stop the renovation of Muhaideen Jumma Mosque of Allai Nagar in Thoppur (Muttur area). They demand to see the approval for the mosque. They leave the premises after being shown the documents belonging to the mosque trustees for 50 years.
- 3.(227) September 15, 2013, Pulmoddai: More than 1500 acres of land belonging to Muslims and the site have been surveyed and will be acquired for the purpose of constructing a Buddhist temple, establishing a sacred zone, for archaeological exploration, and for expanding the camps of the security forces. Arisi Malai, 13th Mile Post, Ponmalikuda are the areas that come under the survey.
- 4.(228) September 16, 2013, Thoppur: According to former parliamentarian M. Mahroof 50 acres of land was "grabbed" to construct a Buddhist vihara at Thoppur or Akkarai, of Seruwila has instructed the village (GS) officer to acquire and hand over the lands evicting 60 Muslim families living on the said lands. They said at the beginning six acres of lands were allocated but later the extent of land has been increased. There are no Buddhists in the above village; Muslims have been living there for generations.
- 5.(255) November 06, 2013, Akkarai, Thoppur: While a farmer was preparing his land for cultivation a group of people from the Majority community have arrived there with a surveyor and started surveying his and the neighbouring lands without the owners' permission. When the farmer tried to stop them surveying his land there was an altercation. The Seruvila Police arrived on the scene shortly thereafter and resolved the quarrel and requested the group to temporarily stop surveying the land. Local Muslims claimed that Buddhists of the neighbouring areas were trying to acquire land owned by Muslims to build Buddhist temples. Muslims have ownership documents to their lands but still feel that the very existence of their village is threatened. (Ref. No.228)

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN KURUNEGALA DISTRICT

- 1.(8) January 20, 2013, Kuliyaipitiya: Leaflets against Muslims and Islam are distributed.
- 2.(10) January 21, 2013, Kuliyaipitiya: Call for a meeting styled as a Sharia 'Pooja' (devotion) regarding the Halal issue. The posters state that a monk is the convener of the meeting.
- 3.(12) January 22, 2013, Paragahadeniya: A tense situation is created when 10 monks openly dissuade Sinhalese people from going to Muslim shops.
- 4.(16) January 24, 2013, Kuliyaipitiya: A group of monks led by "Matale weda hamuduruwo" parade an image (written as 'Allah' in Arabic on a paper mache pig) around the town. Can do with more details at least a reference to BBS.
- 5.(23) February 07, 2013, Narammala: An unknown gang posts anonymous letters to Muslim shopkeepers stating that if they do not close by March 2013, they will be "destroyed".
- 6.(28) February 11, 2013, Narammala: Muslim businessmen receive warning letters from an organization called the 'Consortium of Buddhist Associations' stating that the "Para Muslims will be dead before March"
- 7.(30) February 13, 2013, Narammala: In Siyabalagaskotuwa and Kilinpolla, around areas near the police, four Muslim shops are attacked by unidentified persons in broad daylight. No police came to their aid.
- 8.(38) February 20, 2013, Paragahadeniya: Anti-Muslim posters appear outside the Ethkanda temple.
- 9.(52) February 28, 2013, Kurunegala: Leaflets encouraging the boycott of Muslim shops are delivered by the Ethukalpura Youth Association.

- 10.(55) March 02, 2013, Melsiripura: Leaflets and notices for an anti-Muslim rally are issued. The town is decorated in advance with anti-Muslim posters for the rally, creating tension in the town between the Sinhalese and the Muslims.
- 11.(71) March 07, 2013, Kurunegala & Galgamuwa: Leaflets are issued against Muslims and Halal products ("Sri Lanka is going to become a Muslim country")
- 12.(100) March 20, 2013, Thiththavalgala: Posters appear on a Masjid (Mosque) wall before the start of the "Fajr" (dawn) Prayer.
- 13.(105) March 25, 2013, Kurunegala: Posters have come up against Muslims in the Kurunegala town. A group called "Ethukalpura Sinhalese" claimed responsibility for the posters.
- 14.(125) March 31, 2013, Kurunegala: People shopping in a Muslim-owned shop have rotten eggs thrown at them. A Facebook page, called 'Athugal Pura Sinha Pataw' shows images of a man and a woman after being pelted with rotten eggs holding Nolimit bags, with the caption: "If you go to Nolimit or Fashion Bug we will attack. If you have their bags in your hands we will attack. And that is not all. Those who betray the race, even if they have police protection will be attacked with rotten eggs today, faces tomorrow."
- 15.(183) June 22, 2013, Mallawapitiya: The BBS is reported to be forcefully occupying a house belonging to a Muslim in Mallawapitiya and refusing to obey the court order to return the house.
- 16.(200) July 22, 2013, Kurunegala: Bodu Bala Sena, General Secretary Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara states at the Kurunegala Bodu Bala Sena District Committee meeting that even though there are plenty of universities in this country, Hira Foundation of Saudi Arabia is planning to construct a university in Kalmunai. "The purpose of this university is to produce a great number of Ulama within a year. The King of Saudi Arabia is the head of the Hira Foundation. That means the NGOs also can start universities in this country. If this goes on there will be a request for the implementation of Sharia law and ultimately there will be a demand for the Arabic language as one of ours". He states that 31 students selected for universities from Ampara District out of which only two were Sinhalese and two were Tamils. "Is this not racism?" he asks.

- 17.(201) July 23, 2013, Kurunegala: Bodu Bala Sena Secretary says that Muslim fundamentalists are behind the sale of drugs and that is "worse than the effect of the 13th amendment to the constitution of Sri Lanka. Institutions that are formed under Sharia law function in the share market and soon the details of the institutions will be revealed. 65 Interpreters were appointed to the courts in 2013 and among them 51 are Muslims, out of which 35 are Muslim women. This shows the law has been badly affected in the country."
- 18.(210) August 11, 2013, Kurunegala: Referring to sign board stating "Silence please" close to the Paragahadeniya Masjid in Mawathagama, the BBS states "We cannot allow these activities by extreme Muslims."
- 19.(213) August 13, 2013, Kurunegala: The BBS states at a gathering at the Satyawathi Grounds in Kurunegala that they have requested the Defence Ministry to investigate the Thawheed Jamaath "extremist group" which was involved in the Grandpass incident and "chase them out of the country". There are enough places to worship, stated the BBS, and hence they request the President to stop granting permission to build Masjids, Temples & Kovils. Muslims are not following the country's law. Representatives further stated that "we are telling them not to bring the Arabic law to our country. If the Defence unit of the country doesn't take action against the Thawheed extremism, we will control them."

20.(267) December 07, 2013, Morawak Watte, Thagaspittiya, Ridigama:

The Land Reform Commission takes measures to transfer the ownership of 6.5 acres of private land in Thagaspittiya Morawak watte to the Paththiny Devalaya (Temple) in Kandy. This land belongs to 40 Muslim families and 2 Sinhala families. The Muslims are highly disturbed due to the fact that these lands were given to them officially in 1976 by the government under the rural development scheme and they have built their own houses and established livelihoods. They were asked to leave their land without any prior notice, compensation or provision of an alternative land.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN ANURADHAPURA DISTRICT

- 1.(1) January 05, 2013, Anuradhapura: A demonstration against Anuradhapura Malwathuoya Mosque is held by monks. The demonstrators demanded immediate removal of the Mosque and the Muslims living around the mosque with immediate effect.
- 2.(4) January 07, 2013, Malwathuoya: A group of Buddhist monks hold a protest demanding that the Muslims, who have been living down Malwathu Oya lane for a long time, leave the area for good. (Ref No.1)
- 3.(5) January 09, 2013, Anuradhapura: The Anuradhapura Malwathuoya Mosque is attacked for the third time. During the attack the mosque was submerged due to flood. (Ref No.4)
- 4.(9) January 20, 2013, Anuradhapura: Notices and leaflets appear, warning the Sinhalese not to consume food in Muslim Hotels (restaurants) because it causes impotence in Sinhalese men.
- 5.(116) March 28, 2013, Kekkirawa: Bodu Bala Sena organizes a public meeting against Muslims at the Maha Januarya ground in Kekkirawa.
- 6.(135) April 03, 2013, Anuradhapura: A Muslim Sunday School in Dickson Road, Malwatu Oya, Anuradhapura is ordered by the Bodu Bala Sena to shut down immediately. In the event the order is not obeyed, the Bodu Bala Sena personnel will forcibly remove the premises, they said. To avoid any clashes between to the two communities the Director of the Police intelligence service Mahesh Senaratna requested the courts to issue an order to remove it immediately without further incident.

- 7.(161) June 01, 2013, Palagala: Palagala Divisional Secretary K.P.S. Kulawaratchi orders the Muslim women employees of the DS office not to come to work with Abaya.
- 8.(238) October 05, 2013, Anuradhapura: 'The time has come to show who the rightful race of this country is'. This was a statement made by Rev. Galagoda Aththe Gnanasara of the Bodu Bala Sena at the Rajarata Conference of the Bodu Bala Sena held at the Salgado Stadium in Anuradhapura. He further mentioned 'Rauf Hakeem wants the East, Vigneswaran wants the North and in a few days they will say that Colombo is ours. Tamils say the North is theirs the Muslims extremists claim that the East is theirs. Now it is time for us to show who the rightful owners of Sri Lanka are and who are foreign. Before we build roads and the tallest tower in Asia we should show who the historic nationals of this country are' he stated. He also stated that when different missionaries visit your homes, it is no use informing the police. The police cannot do anything about it, as these are not mentioned in the law books, 'We have to make our own laws' he said, when such things happen we should use the broom. 'This is the alternative' he said.
- 9.(259) November 17, 2013, Kekkirawa: A Jumma Mosque situated on the A9 Main Road in the Kekkirawa Police Division came under attack by an unidentified gang. Trustees of the Mosque say glass panes of the Mosque have been shattered in the course of attack.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN BADULLA DISTRICT

- 1.(20) January 31, 2013, Badulla: Members of the Movement for Equal Rights were threatened by the politicians, mob and police when they distributed handbills against those creating divisions between ethnicities and religions. Some of the members of the Movement for Equal Rights were questioned by the Badulla police for "acting against the government".
- 2.(115) March 28, 2013, Badulla: A leaflet is published against Muslims in Badulla town.
- 3.(124) March 31, 2013, Badulla: Posters appear in Badulla town against Muslims.
- 4.(175) June 15, 2013, Badulla: The Bodu Bala Sena General Secretary calls for a ban of the Niqab, saying that several local banks had contacted him and complained that conducting business with veiled clients is problematic and is of great inconvenience to them. He also accuses Islamic fundamentalists of attempting to turn Sri Lanka into an Arabian country, ominously adding that if the fundamentalists continue to follow these practices, the moderate Muslims will suffer punishment as well. Building on the General Secretary's argument, BBS Spokesman Dilantha Withanage, claims that their opposition to the Niqab is not an attack on the Muslim community but goes beyond difficulties faced by local banks. "When these veiled individuals walk on the road, people do not know who they are, and that affects their personal security". According to him, the Niqab is not a custom that all Muslim's follow, and therefore it is unnecessary, and should be banned as it has been in France and other countries. Once it is banned, Sri Lanka can walk on the road sans fear of the veiled individuals who cannot be identified.
- 5.(178) June 18, 2013, Badulla: BBS General Secretary claims "Sri Lanka belongs to Buddhists. Other religious people should not have any rights. Muslim people can wear Abaya in Saudi Arabia, but we cannot accept that dress in Sri Lanka." He also claimed that Muslims were only brought to Sri Lanka to do business and construct roads.

- 6.(190) July 08, 2013, Badulla: Posters appear in Badulla city against the blood donation campaign organized by the Jamiyyathul Ulama Badulla branch. Also, the Bodu Bala Sena organizes a protest campaign near the Nimal Siripala de Silva postal building in the city.
- 7.(193) July 11, 2013, Mahiyangana: A mob of masked individuals stone the Mahiyangana Mosque, assault the mosque trustee, break into the Mosque and throw pig's head, flesh and blood into its precincts. To further reinforce the mood of terror, the power was switched off during the attack. The incident took place at 11.30p.m. as the Muslims of Mahiyangana offered special Ramadan Tharaweeth night prayers. Many of the windows were broken. The onslaught lasted upto 20 minutes before the power was restored and the aggressors made to leave. No one has been arrested. Prior to the attack, the mosque trustee had been attacked with chili powder and threatened against continuing Friday prayers in the Mosque and warned that the worst was yet to come. Disregarding the threats, the Mosque conducted the Friday prayers. Additionally, Mahiyangana Provincial Council Member, Chief Incumbent of the Mahaweli Maha Viharaya Rev. Watareka Vijitha while speaking at special ceremony organized by the Upcountry Muslim Council reveled that Rev. Gnanasara and some others had come to the Maha Viharaya in Mahiyanganaya and had a discussion the day before the attack.
- 8.(198) July 19, 2013, Mahiyangana: Mahiyangana Mosque closes down for the first time in 40 years. Uva Province Minister, Anura Vithanagama, allegedly threatened the trustee of the Mahiyangana Masjidul Araba Mosque against holding Jumma prayers. During the past few months there have been repeated threats demanding the trustee to stop Friday Jumma prayers and remove the Mosque.

HATE SPEECHES AND ANTI MUSLIM ACTIVITIES IN RATNAPURA DISTRICT

- 1.(17) January 26, 2013, Balangoda (Jailani): 150 monks from the Sinhala Ravaya and Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) groups attempt to storm the Jailani mosque. Accompanied by several policemen, they clambered up the rock face, carrying Buddha statues in their hands, only to find their attempt foiled by a massive thunder-shower that caused the group to retrace their steps.
- 2.(58) March 03, 2013, Opanayaka: A mosque is attacked in Opanayaka.
- 3.(133). April 03, 2013, Jailani: Muslims' shops and residences are attacked and invaded by members of the Sinhala Ravaya.
- 4.(153) May 08, 2013, Balangoda: The Bodu Bala Sena demands the removal of all buildings from Kuragala (Jailani) by 18th May, failing which they will "come with 5000 people and surround the area."
- 5.(237) October 03, 2013, Kuragala, Balangoda: Jailanee including the Mosque and the surrounding area have been declared as an archaeological site and all buildings except the Mosque have been demolished by the civil defence force. The imam's (priest) room and the office were removed last week. Bodu Bala Sena (BBS) had previously vowed to remove the Mosque from Kuragala.

- 9.(205) July 30, 2013, Dewanagala: The Bodu Bala Sena visit the Dewanagala rock mountain and temple in Uyanwatte, Mawanella and mark 72 acres as "sacred land." Even though the Muslims of the area possess 130-year-old deeds for their properties, the BBS tell the Sinhalese residents that the Muslims have no right to live there, that they should be removed from the vicinity and their lands given to traditional Sinhalese soon. They also warn the Muslim residents to vacate the place as soon as possible and pay compensation for living there. Despite appealing to the government, local politicians were unable to stop the BBS from holding a meeting on the Dewanagala rock summit. However, the use of loudspeakers was prohibited by the police and much of the hate speeches were not heard by those at the bottom of the rock. Buddhists and Muslims have been living around/on the Dewanagala rock for centuries. Approximately 75% of the inhabitants are Sinhalese. (Ref. No.195)

10.(214) August 23, 2013, Mawanella: The Sinhala Ravaya stops the President's convoy, which was returning to Colombo from Mawanella, and complains about their plight of Dewanagala. According to the Rev. Magalkande Suantha's version of the crisis in Dewanagala, "a millionaire Muslim businessman has bought over the sacred place in Dewanagala and fenced off the land, chased off the monks, scribbled Tamil filth in front of the temple and destroyed the statues." (Please see incident No.194. and No.204) He further stated to the press later on that he has trust in the President and that the President himself had assured him that he would take necessary steps to deal with this situation. (Ref. No.205)

11.(221) September 10, 2013, Dewanagala: Rev. Magalkantha Sudhantha of Sinhala Ravaya and the secretary of the National Campaigning to Protect Dewanagal, Buddhika Dias stated at a media conference that the non-Buddhist community (Muslims) residing within the Dewanagala historic sacred land should be removed. They stated that they wanted the 72 acres of land belonging to the Department of Archaeology to be surveyed in an appropriate manner by the government and the boundaries marked before the 25th of September. They threatened to commit suicide by leaping from the summit of the rock if the government failed to do so within the stipulated time. They further stated that the sacrifice of life was for the sake of "our nationality" and that the President and the government should take responsibility of the sacrifice. This communiqué was signed in the presence of media personnel and arrangement were made to deliver it to the President. (Ref. No.214)

12.(225) September 14, 2013, Dewanagala, Mawanella: The Sinhala Ravaya Organization stated at a press conference today that the meat stall at Dewanagala sacred area has been removed with the intervention of the Defence Secretary Gotabaya Rajapaksa. The beef stall has been operating under the license issued by the Mawanella Pradeshiya Sabha. Participating in a media conference at Dewanagala, the National Organizer of Sinhala Ravaya Rev. Magalkande Sudantha said "we came here to take a historical decision. We were here to start a protest to death. There is a meat stall started at the sacred area without permission. We made the Defence Ministry aware of this. Nothing was done by the Provincial Council Members to stop this. We were personally informed by the Defence Secretary that this will be closed". This beef stall was run by a Muslim and the Sinhala Ravaya claims that the land where the stall is, comes under the 'Temple and Devala' Act. (Ref. No.221)

13.(244) October 16, 2013, Kannathota: Muslims in this area were prevented from performing the animal sacrifice (qurban) until the day of the Haj festival. In spite of early request made by the Sabaragamuwa Provincial Council member and the president of Kannathota Jumma Mosque Nihal Faruk, the Pradeshiya Sabha, the Medical Officer of Health and the Public Health Inspector delayed the issue of permits due to pressure from extremist elements. It was only after the people of the area contacted Mr. Basil Rajapaksha (The Minister of Economic Development and the President's brother) the permit was issued, that too on the day of the Hajj festival.

14.(245) October 16, 2013, Ruwanwella: Qurban to be held in celebration of the Haj festival in Ruwanwella yesterday, by the Kannathota and Bulathkohupitiya Mosques, had to be cancelled due to the Ruwanwella

Pradeshiya Sabha failing to issue a permit on time to slaughter 41 cattle. Opposition Leader of the Pradeshiya Sabha, Mohammad Shiyam, said they had sought a license since it involves a religious practice. When inquiries were made by Ceylon Today, Ruwanwella Police Officer In-charge said, Ven. Badalkumbura Wimalaratne of Lenagala Rajamaha Viharaya had lodged a complaint against the planned cattle slaughter.

15.(264) November 28, 2013, Dewanagala, Mawanella: The Rev. Magalkande Sudantha, the Convenor of the Sinhala Ravaya and four other monks have begun a fast unto death campaign near the clock tower in Mawanella since the morning of the 28th of November. These monks are urging the archaeological department to survey the land around the Dewanagala Raja Maha Viharaya (Buddhist Temple). According to these Buddhist monks, intruders (Muslims) are carrying out illegal mining and construction activities in the area. They claim that this is security risk to the religious site and that it also damages the archaeological value of the location. Hundreds of Muslim families are living in approximately 72 acres of this land and the priests called upon the department to remove these Muslims from this area and takeover the land. The fast unto death was begun by the monks claiming that the survey was being delayed. (Ref. No.225)

16.(266) December 03, 2013, Dewanagala, Mawanella: Surveying the controversial land of Dewanagala commenced today (December 03). The Department of Archaeology has informed nearly 100 Muslim families to vacate the Dewanagal area in Mawanella. These families were living here for over 200 years and they have necessary documents in their possessions to prove that they are lawful owners of the lands they live in. These families were asked to leave reportedly due to the pressure from the Sinahala Ravaya, the extremist Buddhist group which has been agitating to chase the Muslims away from this area. The Sinhala Ravaya launched many campaigns including staging a fast unto death (see November 25) to make Dewanagala a Buddhist sacred area sans minorities. In August 23, 2013 the Presidential motorcade was brought to a halt by the Sinhala Ravaya in Mawanella while President Mahinda Rajapaksa was returning after attending a ceremony in Mawanella. They handed over a petition to the President urging him to take steps immediately to protect the sacred land of Dewanagala. They alleged that the area has been encroached by Muslims. The President assured that he would order an inquiry into the matter and take appropriate action. However, the reason given by the Department of Archaeology ordering the Muslims to leave from there is that they have earmarked the land surrounding the Dewanagala rock for Archaeological excavation. In the meantime rev. Anuradhapura Amitha Dhamma who was present at the site aggravated the already tense situation. The monk wanted the archaeological site to be extended beyond the 400 meters as currently planned and have all houses and mosques in the vicinity demolished. He allegedly claimed that he had destroyed the Mosques in Anuradhapura, and vowed that he would destroy the ones in Kegalle in the same way. (Ref. No.263)

- 17.(279) December 23, 2013, Dewanagala, Mawanella: Sinhala Ravaya in posters have called on Sinhala youths to join "the first suicide army" to go to Dewanagala today. A group of persons (not locals) mobilized by Sinhala Ravaya entered Dewanagala and staged a protest creating fear among the Muslim residents. The group was asking the Muslims to leave the area immediately. In recent days the Sinhala Ravaya has staged several protests, claiming that Dewanagala is the traditional sacred land of the Sinhala Buddhists. Around 30% of the inhabitants are Muslims living there for centuries. Some of the inhabitants are in the possession of two hundred year old land deeds. Due to the extreme fear situation some Muslim politicians had to bring the attention of the President and defuse tensions. The organizer of Sinhala Ravaya Rev. Magalkantha Suthantha made a statement to media that if the unauthorized structures on the Dewanagala historic land are not demolished and the preparations to survey the land are not made within the next three months, the Sinhala Ravaya will undertake the responsibilities to do so. Although there is police to protect the Muslims the fear among the people remains heightened. (Ref. No.266)

The ethnic conflict in Sri Lanka has had a terrible effect on the Muslims. The forcible eviction of more than one hundred thousand Muslims, the destruction of more than 150 mosques and other places of worship, the confiscation of land and attacks on innocent civilians while praying in the mosques have caused fear and insecurity in the hearts of the Muslims. Therefore, the Muslims have to be vigilant in the future. Our primary concern is the safety and security of our people, rights for our areas of historical habitation, resettlement of the forcibly displaced Muslims and power sharing on the basis of internal self-determination.

The violence perpetrated against the Muslims during the last three decades had shown us that we have not succeeded in drawing effective attention to our grievances locally and internationally. When more than hundred thousand Muslims were forcibly evicted by the Tamil terrorists, there was very little protest from International organisations. We have learnt over the years that the Government security forces have failed to afford adequate protection to the Muslims. To safeguard our constitutional rights and ensure adequate protection, we have no option but to make use of the protocols and instruments available under the Charter of the United Nations.

We are quite aware that the internationalization alone will not bring practical solution to the problems faced by the Muslims in Sri Lanka. It is imperative to work out special programmes and negotiations aimed at providing durable settlement of our grievances with other communities and the government based on the principals of equality and natural justice.
